Even For Troops Of Red Viet Cong

PLEIKU, South Viet Nam (AP) — "It is terrible and miserable," wrote Nguyen Chanh Ngoc.

"Enemy mortars shell us day and night. Airplanes bomb and strafe and we can do nothing about it. The fighting situation is tough, too serious and difficult."

Ngoc was a political officer with a Viet Cong company operating near the Special Forces camp at Duc Co. He had heard his battalion was coming to join him and was writing to his "comrades" Lam, Trung and Dinh.

"We have been taught to win, to meet every difficulty and emergency in waging warfare," he wrote. "We are ready to continue the fight, but we are all a little low in spirit because of the difficulties and the terrible conditions of hunger.

"Half of our strength is sick, some of them with bad illnesses. Sometimes we can muster only one platoon for military operations.

"I am sick almost every day with stomach pains and go for weeks without food. Yet I still have to move back and forth from the front every day because we have dead and wounded and other problems, and I need to deal with other friendly units in the area.

"Drugs are low. We are so far away that if a comrade gets sick and lapses into unconsciousness, we have no pill to refresh him and we cannot move him.

"Three of our four duty attendants are sick. Our comrades groaned at them and said to them that as cooks they had less right to be sick than the soldiers.

"Our activities continue, and we work without sleeping or washing our hands and faces or taking a bath because there is no water on the ground. Our soldiers operate around the clock. They fight in daytime and at night. They destroy the roads by digging into them. We just sleep four or five hours a night.

"All our clothes, blankets and hammocks are the same color as the red ground. We cannot evade the red earth because we are constantly digging our foxholes and trenches.

"The rice we are being supplied is so bad that it gets sour after it is brought to us. We eat just salt.

"We would like the battation commander to handle this problem for us. Is there some unit to relieve us so that we would have some time to reorganize and return to the front after that? That would be the most realistic thing to do."

Ngoc never sent his letter. It was found on his body Thursday by government troops searching outside the Duc Co camp.

Vietnamese and U.S. military authorities said they were convinced the letter was authentic.

House OKs $3 Billion Works Bill

Measure, Designed To Boost Economy, Returned To Senate

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House has passed a $3.25-billion public works and economic development bill after hearing proponents call it a boon and opponents call it a boondoggle.

The measure, designed to give a boost to areas whose economy is depressed, goes to the Senate, which has passed a slightly different version.

A continuation and enlargement of the expiring area redevelopment and public works acceleration programs, the bill carries a price tag $750 million higher than the one President Johnson tied to his original request.

During two days of debate preceding House passage Thursday night by roll-call vote of 246 to 138, sponsors said it would be a boon to areas of above-average unemployment and below-average income in every state.

It would do this, they contended, by providing $2 billion for federal grants and $850 million for long-term loans to public bodies and private business to build public facilities, streets and roads, parks, vocational schools and airports and to encourage industrial expansion that would provide long-term jobs.

The rest of the money would be used for technical aid and multicounty programs.

Most of the money, if Congress actually appropriates it in a separate bill, would be spent over a five-year period.

Republican opponents labeled the measure a boondoggle that would not accomplish the stated objective but would only run the federal government farther into debt.

To back this claim they cited overwhelming voice-vote approval of an amendment to guarantee that every state would share in the money if it wanted to. As presented to the House, the bill had in it nothing for Hawaii, New Hampshire, Vermont and Delaware because those states could not qualify as having economically depressed areas.

Senate backers of the bill which passed that body overwhelmingly June 1 indicated they would go along with most of the House changes except for one providing for a speed-up of the program and making more areas eligible to participate.

That change, adopted by roll-call vote of 196 to 194 after considerable persuasion by administration lieutenants, would let about 100 counties in 29 states share in the grants by liberalizing the eligibility requirements.

Republican-backed amendments to trim the scope of the bill limit grants to 50 per cent, eliminate loans for commercial purposes, and cut out loan payment guarantees were defeated almost as rapidly as they were offered.

72 Arrested In 2nd Night Of Violence

BULLETIN

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Police fought more than 7,000 Negroes for several hours Thursday night and today during rioting in which more than 120 persons were hurt, including comedian Dick Gregory.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Rioters fought police on the streets of Los Angeles' South Side today with guns, rocks and fire. Negro comedian Dick Gregory, hit by a bullet, was among 100 persons injured.

Police jailed 72 rioters in the second night of violence along Central Avenue in the city's Negro district. More than 700 officers enforced a brief calm at midnight. Then, before dawn, mobs filled the streets again in an outburst of burning, shooting and looting.

Gunfire erupted just before Gregory, 32, had urged a throng of 500 Negroes to return to their homes.

Outbreaks of violence continued elsewhere in the area. Police warned motorists, "particularly Caucasians," to stay out of the section today.

Gregory, a $2,500-a-week night club entertainer, has been traveling the nation to assist in the civil rights movement since 1963.

He said the shooting was directed at the police, not at him. Doctors at Central Receiving Hospital termed his injury minor.

He was hit in the left thigh by a small-caliber bullet as he stood amid the battle-scarred scene of rioting — the Watts district of Los Angeles.

Buildings and a lumberyard were set ablaze in Watts early today as rioting renewed in ferocity after tapering off at midnight.

Police said Gregory was attempting to mediate between police and rioters.

He was hit as he stood in what police called a no man's land — Central and Imperial Highway. A liquor store, a drive-in restaurant and a small clinic were burned to the ground. A nearby lumber yard was set ablaze.

Firemen, attempting to answer the calls, were turned back by barrages of windshield-shattering bricks and bottles.

Don Smith, chairman of the Los Angeles chapter of the Congress of Racial Equality, said Gregory was urging rioters to go home when a burst of about 20 shots came from the mob.

"Dick was talking to a group of people,telling them that their wives and children were in danger, when guns were fired from across the street," Smith said.

Gregory fell, got up, then con-

Negotiate And End Struggle

King Says He May Write Opposing Sides In Viet

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., 1964 Nobel Peace Prize winner, said today he is contemplating writing to the opposing sides in the Viet Nam conflict to negotiate and end the struggle's "cycle of mistrust, violence and war."

And, King said, if this violates a federal regulation called the Logan Act, "it's very unfortunate."

The act forbids private citizens—without White House permission — from negotiating directly with heads of foreign governments.

King said he is aware of the act, but that his letters to the government heads would not constitute negotiating but attempts "to get those involved to negotiate."

He said the letters would be sent in two or three weeks.

King said word of his plans leaked out when he wrote the United Nations recently for addresses of the government heads he intends to communicate with — North Viet Nam, Russia, South Viet Nam. He also would write President Johnson in Washington.

In one of his first major statements on international affairs, King told his Southern Christian Leadership Conference convention that each side must take "a small first step" to show good faith.

He urged the United States to seriously consider cessation of bombings of North Viet Nam and said, "The employment of some of our forces in rebuilding some of the villages which have been destroyed immediately would be a solid indication to the people of Viet Nam that our interest is in the development of Viet Nam and not its destruction."

The civil rights leader, speaking to some 4,000 whites and Negroes in the city's huge Municipal Auditorium, stated that as a minister of the Gospel and advocate of nonviolence, the Viet Nam war has pained him greatly.

"Ho Chi Minh and Chou En-lai (Red China) must express unequivocably their desire to alter their position in demanding the unilaterial withdrawal of American forces from South Viet nam," King said.

Warning that the Viet Nam conflict could lead to a broadened war that "may imperil the existence of whole continents," King made an urgent plea for all sides to resort to the conference table.

He also urged that the United Nations be empowered to mediate the conflict in negotiations involving all parties, "including the National Liberation Front of South Viet Nam."

King's speech aroused little response from his huge audience.

Thursday night's mass meeting was the largest of the ninth annual convention — which King called the SCLC's greatest ever. The convention concludes today.

Mekong Delta Action

Viet Claims 250 Guerrillas Killed

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Vietnamese government forces today claimed a toll of about 250 Viet Cong after pinning down a Viet Cong concentration in the Mekong Delta 90 miles southwest of Saigon.

Vietnamese reports said 156 Viet Cong were killed in heavy ground fighting and another 100 were estimated killed by air strikes. Government casualties were reported light.

U.S. military sources said they considered the Vietnamese figures "pretty good" estimates, although there apparently was no complete body count.

The major fighting came Thursday afternoon during a government operation 15 miles southwest of Can Tho. Taking part in the sweep through the canal-laced, rice paddy area were army ranger, armored and regional force personnel accompanied by U.S. advisers.

U.S. spokesmen said the force pinned the Viet Cong down on a wide front. Helicopters lifted in ranger units to cut off the guerrillas.

U.S. and Vietnamese air force planes flew 38 sorties against the Viet Cong, spokesmen said, and forward air controllers estimated 70 buildings were destroyed and about 40 others damaged.

A U.S. military spokesman said no further action had been reported in the Duc- Co-Pleiku area in the central Viet Nam highlands since the Viet Cong hit the Special Forces camp at Duc Co with 10 rounds of mortar fire during the night. He said there were no casualties reported from the mortar fire.

Vietnamese elements were reported moving along route 19 between Pleiku and Duc Co without making contact with the Communists.

Rivers Urges U.S. Be Ready For Red China

Says We Should Be Prepared To Strike With All Weapons

WASHINGTON (AP) — The chairman of the House Armed Services Committee, Rep. L. Mendel Rivers, said today the United States should be prepared to hit Peking with everything in its arsenal if Red Chinese troops move into Viet Nam.

Rivers said, however, he was not advocating a shoot-first nuclear attack on Communist China.

"What I am saying," the South Carolina Democrat declared in an interview, "is that Americans must be prepared to make the decision to attack Mao Tze-tung's homeland if Mao's forces start moving."

"If his legions start moving," Rivers added, "you're not going to stop them with a popgun."

The United States would have to hit them "with every single, solitary gadget in our arsenal," he said.

The Southerner is not an administration spokesman on military affairs, but because of his position as Armed Services Committee Chairman his views attract wide attention.

Thus his speech Wednesday night in Hartford, Conn., which some interpreted as suggesting a preventive attack on Red China's nuclear installations, rang bells in the Capitol.

While Rivers sat in silence, Rep. Don Edwards, D-Calif., noted in the House Thursday that Rivers had been quoted as saying, "should we use our atomic power to wipe out Red China's atomic capability? We must get ready to do this very thing if we want to stop Red China."

If Rivers said that, Edwards declared, "the gentleman has Pair Jammed On Ladder?

2 May Have Caused Silo Deaths, Zuckert Claims

WASHINGTON (AP) — Air Force Secretary Eugene M. Zuckert says two men trying desperately to escape in Monday's missile silo explosion at Searcy, Ark., may have blocked a narrow opening and prevented some of the 53 victims from getting out.

In a report to President Johnson, made public Thursday by the White House, Zuckert said: "A number of men had attempted to escape by the emergency ladder which apparently was blocked by two men who became jammed together in trying to pass simultaneously through a restricted area on the ladder, thus denying access to those on the ladder below them."

But the secretary, just back from a personal inspection of the Titan II missile complex at Searcy, emphasized that investigation of the disaster "is still in the preliminary stage."

"Cause of death was almost exclusively asphyxiation," he said.

The explosion occurred while a civilian labor force — much larger than that required for normal maintenance of the long-range missile site — was doing major underground modification work on the silo.

Two of the workmen escaped.

"It was apparent to all of us visiting the silo that this is an inherently difficult situation for a large-scale maintenance or modification project," Zuckert said. "There are difficulties involved in a prjoect of this type where a large number of men with their necessary construction equipment are required to work on various levels of the missile silo in a confined and congested space already densely packed with the equipment."

Although the same contractor had modified 21 identical silos previously without time lost for injuries, Zuckert said that "the modification of the remaining 33 Titan sites has been suspended until the report of the investigating team is complete and the corrective action indicated by the investigators has been taken."

Zuckert said that they "must examine the adequacy of the escape system and emergency equipment, the training and discipline of contractor personnel, and the emergency lighting and escape equipment during periods of unusually heavy maintenance or modification."

In Little Rock, Arkansas Gov. Orval E. Faubus said that the Air Force — as is normal in such cases — is investigating the possibility of sabotage.

"Of course, the Air Force has no evidence of this," Faubus said.

Col. Charles Strang, vice president of the Air Force Accident Investigation Board, said that "the possibility of sabotage in any major accident in the Air Force is never ruled out.

Midland Sets Action Upon CATV Offer

Midland Borough Council will act some time in October on bids it will receive later this month from two television cable firms for the establishment of a community service in the area.

Representatives from Rego Industries of Hoboken, N. J., and the Center Video Co. of State College, Pa., appeared before Council Thursday night to discuss the facilities.

James Coffey of Rego and Robert Videck of Center Video said they will submit their respective bids by the end of the month after conferring with company officials.

In other action, council has filed application with the Community Facilities Administration of the Federal Housing and Home Finance Agency for a loan for the construction of an incinerator for the city.

A contract was awarded to the Patterson Equipment Co. of Carnegie for the purchase of a new city street cleaner at a cost of $12,473.

The new cleaner will be equipped with a lead broom and a dual broom, equipment which

Racing Commission Move For Suit Transfer Heard

A hearing was under way today in Hancock County Circuit Court on a West Virginia Racing Commission request to transfer a suit against the commission to a Charleston court.

Judge Ralph Pryor was presiding.

Teamsters Local 412 has filed suit to prevent the commission from entering into a labor dispute at the Waterford Park race track near Newell.

The track used a commission regulation to dismiss employes who refused to cross a Teamsters' picket line. The union is seeking to organize jockeys, pari-mutuel ticket sellers, maintenance men and other workers.

An attorney representing the commission has argued that the case should be heard in Kanawha County, where the commission's headquarters are located.

Meanwhile, the 10,000 - member Western Pennsylvania Building Service Employes Joint Council 20, meeting in Pittsburgh Thursday night, called for a union boycott of the track.

Local 101 of the Building Service Employes Union, representing 150 pari-mutuel clerks who are affiliated with the council, is supporting the teamsters' strike.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Air Force Secretary Eugene M. Zuckert says two men trying desperately to escape in Monday's missile silo explosion at Searcy, Ark., may have blocked a narrow opening and prevented some of the 53 victims from getting out.

"It was apparent to all of us visiting the silo that this is an inherently difficult situation for a large-scale maintenance or modification project," Zuckert said. "There are difficulties involved in a prjoect of this type where a large number of men with their necessary construction equipment are required to work on various levels of the missile silo in a confined and congested space already densely packed with the equipment."

Although the same contractor had modified 21 identical silos previously without time lost for injuries, Zuckert said that "the modification of the remaining 33 Titan sites has been suspended until the report of the investigating team is complete and the corrective action indicated by the investigators has been taken."

Zuckert said that they "must examine the adequacy of the escape system and emergency equipment, the training and discipline of contractor personnel, and the emergency lighting and escape equipment during periods of unusually heavy maintenance or modification."

In Little Rock, Arkansas Gov. Orval E. Faubus said that the Air Force — as is normal in such cases — is investigating the possibility of sabotage.

"Of course, the Air Force has no evidence of this," Faubus said.

Col. Charles Strang, vice president of the Air Force Accident Investigation Board, said that "the possibility of sabotage in any major accident in the Air Force is never ruled out.

Racing Commission Move For Suit Transfer Heard

A hearing was under way today in Hancock County Circuit Court on a West Virginia Racing Commission request to transfer a suit against the commission to a Charleston court.

Judge Ralph Pryor was presiding.

Teamsters Local 412 has filed suit to prevent the commission from entering into a labor dispute at the Waterford Park race track near Newell.

The track used a commission regulation to dismiss employes who refused to cross a Teamsters' picket line. The union is seeking to organize jockeys, pari-mutuel ticket sellers, maintenance men and other workers.

An attorney representing the commission has argued that the case should be heard in Kanawha County, where the commission's headquarters are located.

Meanwhile, the 10,000 - member Western Pennsylvania Building Service Employes Joint Council 20, meeting in Pittsburgh Thursday night, called for a union boycott of the track.

Local 101 of the Building Service Employes Union, representing 150 pari-mutuel clerks who are affiliated with the council, is supporting the teamsters' strike.

Policeman And Pastor Jobs Are Interwoven

DELAVAN, Wis. (AP) — David Tomko, the 30-year-old 6 foot, 203 pound night patrolman on the Delavan police force, plays another major role in this southern Wisconsin community.

He is pastor of Emmanuel Christian Assembly Church.

"My work is interwoven," Tomko explained. "They run together in many cases. As a result of my police work, I meet new people, which I can understand better and help more because of my outlook from a pastoral viewpoint."

Tomko, married and the father of three children, works four nights on the 9 p.m. to 5 a.m. shift, two nights from 11 p.m. to 7 a.m. and then has two days off. Some weeks he has only a short nap between police duties and the pulpit.

He said he considers police work a "challenge, because I like people, and that's what this work is."

Viet Nam

Tuesday and Wednesday as reinforcements, were said to be in operational positions but there had been no major contact reported with the Viet Cong. U.S. paratroopers searching a village encountered light fire Thursday but no casualties were reported.

Duc Co, 215 miles north of Saigon and five miles from the Cambodian border, had been under siege for more than two months. Large numbers of troops were moved into the area early this week to relieve the pressure on the camp.

Scattered attacks and harassments were reported in other parts of the country.

The district town of Long Dien was hit by about 20 rounds of 60mm mortar fire, U.S. briefing officers said. The police station in the town 40 miles southeast of Saigon was reported by Vietnamese officials to have been partly destroyed.

They said three Viet Cong were killed in a clash that followed and that the bodies had been left behind.

U.S. officers said 36 Viet Cong were confirmed killed by body count in a one day operation in Binh Thuan Province about 100 miles east of Saigon. Government casualties were described as light.

U.S. and Vietnamese Air Force planes were reported to have flown nearly 200 combat sorties against targets inside the country during the 24-hour period ending at 6 a.m. today. Heavy damage was claimed.

In air action against targets in North Viet Nam today, briefing officers said eight U.S. Air Force F105 Thunderchiefs attacked a bridge about five miles south of Dien Bien Phu, and pilots reported they shattered both approaches. All planes were said to have returned safely with no resistance encountered.

Spokesmen said four Vietnamese Skyraiders dropped 880,000 leaflets Thursday over communities about 30 miles southeast of Vinh, in North Viet Nam. No ground fire or enemy planes were encountered.

A military spokesman said government troops raiding a Viet Cong grenade factory about 55 miles west of Saigon found a cache of Russian and Vietnamese currency along with a printing press, clothing, food and quantities of guns and ammunition.

The spokesman indicated it was the first time Soviet money has been uncovered in South Viet Nam. He did not disclose the amount.

Military officials said a militia unit ran into a small group of Viet Cong just after midnight south of Saigon's Tan Son Nhut Airport. The militiamen killed three guerrillas, captured two and had no casualties of their own, the officials said.

A fleet of helicopters landed a company of U.S. Marines shortly after midnight to comb two villages 12 miles northwest of the Da Nang Air Base. As many as 500 hard-core Viet Cong sometimes operate in the area, and by dawn one dead guerrilla had been found and 20 prisoners had been taken.

The Marines said it was the first large-scale night helicopter assault in history.

In Seoul, the South Korean National Assembly approved the government's plans to send 15,000 combat troops to South Viet Nam. Military sources in the Korean capital said the first contingent of the force would leave this month.

Police Office Rocked When Package Rolls

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP) — The Police Department was rocked when a weird package rolled into Chief Eugene McGovern's office.

The package, addressed to Commissioner James Bookie Turner, contained a transistor radio — turned on and playing rock and roll music.

It was playing when it was mailed, sang its way through the Post Office and twisted from the postman to the chief's desk.

McGovern said that since it was personally addressed to Turner, it would have to keep playing, unopened, until the commissioner returned from an out-of-town trip.

The chief said the package was an advertising gimmick aimed at boosting a local radio station which features rock and roll music.

"Those darned batteries sure are strong," McGovern sighed.

night and they adopted a resolution condemning James F. Edwards, president of Waterford Park, for what they termed a "distorting of the facts in calling it an outlaw and jurisdictional dispute."

The resolution said that the track management "arbitrarily refused to discuss contract proposals which called for an adjustment of pay rates, some of which do not meet the standards provided for menials under the Federal Wage and Hour Law, and for a revision of conditions of work which had become intolerable."

The resolution also said that indications are that the strike will evolve into a long, drawn out endurance contest, "as there appears to be no foreseeable area of compromise on the part of management."

"We feel the strike can be won if union people, their friends and associates will withhold their patronage for the duration of the strike," the resolution said. "This is not being done at present. A spot check shows unionists and business people dependent upon union trade are flagrantly ignoring the lines."

Levey said the Allegheny County Labor Council and its 100 affiliated unions will be asked to inform their members of this situation and "discourage in any way that it can the shameful flouting of picket lines which strike at the very heart of trade unionism."

Father Time Hasn't Stopped In 400 Years

MISHAWAKA, Ind. (AP)—Father time hasn't stopped in Miss Barbara Wilklow's family for more than 400 years.

She claims to have a grandfather clock made in Zug, Switzerland, 400 years ago, which still ticks.

She said she has records showing the solid cherry timekeeper was first repaired in 1803 after her family carried it from its homeland to Pennsylvania where they settled.

Policeman And Pastor Jobs Are Interwoven

He is pastor of Emmanuel Christian Assembly Church.

"My work is interwoven," Tomko explained. "They run together in many cases. As a result of my police work, I meet new people, which I can understand better and help more because of my outlook from a pastoral viewpoint."

Tomko, married and the father of three children, works four nights on the 9 p.m. to 5 a.m. shift, two nights from 11 p.m. to 7 a.m. and then has two days off. Some weeks he has only a short nap between police duties and the pulpit.

He said he considers police work a "challenge, because I like people, and that's what this work is."

Viet Nam

Tuesday and Wednesday as reinforcements, were said to be in operational positions but there had been no major contact reported with the Viet Cong. U.S. paratroopers searching a village encountered light fire Thursday but no casualties were reported.

Duc Co, 215 miles north of Saigon and five miles from the Cambodian border, had been under siege for more than two months. Large numbers of troops were moved into the area early this week to relieve the pressure on the camp.

Scattered attacks and harassments were reported in other parts of the country.

The district town of Long Dien was hit by about 20 rounds of 60mm mortar fire, U.S. briefing officers said. The police station in the town 40 miles southeast of Saigon was reported by Vietnamese officials to have been partly destroyed.

They said three Viet Cong were killed in a clash that followed and that the bodies had been left behind.

U.S. officers said 36 Viet Cong were confirmed killed by body count in a one day operation in Binh Thuan Province about 100 miles east of Saigon. Government casualties were described as light.

U.S. and Vietnamese Air Force planes were reported to have flown nearly 200 combat sorties against targets inside the country during the 24-hour period ending at 6 a.m. today. Heavy damage was claimed.

In air action against targets in North Viet Nam today, briefing officers said eight U.S. Air Force F105 Thunderchiefs attacked a bridge about five miles south of Dien Bien Phu, and pilots reported they shattered both approaches. All planes were said to have returned safely with no resistance encountered.

Spokesmen said four Vietnamese Skyraiders dropped 880,000 leaflets Thursday over communities about 30 miles southeast of Vinh, in North Viet Nam. No ground fire or enemy planes were encountered.

A military spokesman said government troops raiding a Viet Cong grenade factory about 55 miles west of Saigon found a cache of Russian and Vietnamese currency along with a printing press, clothing, food and quantities of guns and ammunition.

The spokesman indicated it was the first time Soviet money has been uncovered in South Viet Nam. He did not disclose the amount.

Military officials said a militia unit ran into a small group of Viet Cong just after midnight south of Saigon's Tan Son Nhut Airport. The militiamen killed three guerrillas, captured two and had no casualties of their own, the officials said.

A fleet of helicopters landed a company of U.S. Marines shortly after midnight to comb two villages 12 miles northwest of the Da Nang Air Base. As many as 500 hard-core Viet Cong sometimes operate in the area, and by dawn one dead guerrilla had been found and 20 prisoners had been taken.

The Marines said it was the first large-scale night helicopter assault in history.

In Seoul, the South Korean National Assembly approved the government's plans to send 15,000 combat troops to South Viet Nam. Military sources in the Korean capital said the first contingent of the force would leave this month.

Police Office Rocked When Package Rolls

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP) — The Police Department was rocked when a weird package rolled into Chief Eugene McGovern's office.

The package, addressed to Commissioner James Bookie Turner, contained a transistor radio — turned on and playing rock and roll music.

It was playing when it was mailed, sang its way through the Post Office and twisted from the postman to the chief's desk.

McGovern said that since it was personally addressed to Turner, it would have to keep playing, unopened, until the commissioner returned from an out-of-town trip.

The chief said the package was an advertising gimmick aimed at boosting a local radio station which features rock and roll music.

"Those darned batteries sure are strong," McGovern sighed.

night and they adopted a resolution condemning James F. Edwards, president of Waterford Park, for what they termed a "distorting of the facts in calling it an outlaw and jurisdictional dispute."

The resolution said that the track management "arbitrarily refused to discuss contract proposals which called for an adjustment of pay rates, some of which do not meet the standards provided for menials under the Federal Wage and Hour Law, and for a revision of conditions of work which had become intolerable."

The resolution also said that indications are that the strike will evolve into a long, drawn out endurance contest, "as there appears to be no foreseeable area of compromise on the part of management."

"We feel the strike can be won if union people, their friends and associates will withhold their patronage for the duration of the strike," the resolution said. "This is not being done at present. A spot check shows unionists and business people dependent upon union trade are flagrantly ignoring the lines."

Levey said the Allegheny County Labor Council and its 100 affiliated unions will be asked to inform their members of this situation and "discourage in any way that it can the shameful flouting of picket lines which strike at the very heart of trade unionism."

Father Time Hasn't Stopped In 400 Years

MISHAWAKA, Ind. (AP)—Father time hasn't stopped in Miss Barbara Wilklow's family for more than 400 years.

She claims to have a grandfather clock made in Zug, Switzerland, 400 years ago, which still ticks.

She said she has records showing the solid cherry timekeeper was first repaired in 1803 after her family carried it from its homeland to Pennsylvania where they settled.

What Else Can They Say?

Among the ho-hum items in the day's news is the totally expected statement from the Ohio Council for Education that the whopping $633 million school foundation bill approved by the legislature is "a second-class program."

It is second-class because it adds $108 million more in public school aid for the next two years than was spent in the preceding two—the largest increase ever voted in Ohio.

It is second-class because it won't cost taxpayers a penny more than they're paying now to give every teacher in Ohio a $200 raise and provide substantial improvements throughout the foundation formula.

A FIRST-CLASS program, by OCE standards, would add $232 million for the next two years by jumping the state sales tax from 3 to 4 per cent—a 33 1-3 per cent increase.

The OCE, made up of the Ohio Education Association and other school groups, tried unsuccessfully to push the tax increase through the General Assembly. Undaunted, the OCE will put the proposition before the voters Nov. 2.

While we won't attempt to say the newly enacted foundation bill represents the ultimate in state support, we feel we can say without successful contradiction that it represents the best that can be had without new taxes.

We think the legislature, by enacting a record school subsidy bill, has stolen whatever steam remained in the OCE proposal.

And we think the OCE would be singing the same sad song no matter how much was in the new foundation bill as long as it fell short of the tax-backed $232 million increase proposal.

This is why OCE Director James Brennan's statement about "a second-class program" will leave no one gaping in surprise.

WHAT ELSE could he say? What else will the OCE be able to say in its forlorn effort to convince voters they should impose a 33 1-3 per cent tax increase on themselves.

The education lobby has dubbed its tax proposal PEP—Plan for Educational Progress.

Now's The Time

Directors of the Lake Erie-Ohio River Highway Association must feel they have just cause or they would not have asked for a meeting with state highway officials on what they have termed an effort to "downgrade" construction on the new thoroughfare from here to Ashtabula.

There's this about it — if there's any question relative to the construction program, now's the time to take action, not after the roadway is in place.

It's easier to alter plans on the drawing board and re-write specifications than it is to dig up a roadway and start over after it has been laid. And few are ripped apart once in place.

Pay Up Or Shut Up

The thorny issue of peace-keeping assessments which has had the United Nations stuck on dead center for more than a year will be brought up again next week by a special 33-nation committee.

It will be interesting to hear the reaction of our new U.N. ambassador, Arthur J. Goldberg, who has just denied a report that he is willing to make concessions to the Soviet Union and a dozen other nations which have reneged on payments.

THE REPORT had indicated Goldberg was willing to shelve Article 19 of the U.N. Charter which says any country two years behind in its peace-keeping payments shall have no vote in the General Assembly.

We hope Goldberg was, in fact, misquoted. We hope further that the U.S. position on the assessment dispute is reflected by Senate Republican Leader Everett Dirksen.

Sen. Dirksen says his colleagues "are real tired" of temporizing on the issue and that the time has come for the U.S. to call for a showdown in the United Nations.

If a showdown is called it obviously will amount to a confrontation with the Soviet Union. Although Russia is only one of 13 countries in arrears, it is the chief offender. The Soviets owe the U.N. more than $60 million and would have to cough up about $22 million to get off the two-year list.

Russia has argued consistently that only the U.N. Security Council can make decisions regarding peace - keeping operations. Russia wants it that way because one negative vote on the Security Council amounts to a veto—and the Soviets have exercised the veto more than 100 times since the U.N. was founded.

But the U.N. General Assembly has clear authority to approve collective security measures by majority vote any time a veto blocks a Security Council action. And the International Court of Justice ruled in 1962 that peace-keeping operations are not the exclusive province of the Security Council.

A far better argument by Russia is that any rule applied to one nation must apply to all. Russia cannot be required to pay while France, Belgium and others are permitted to vote and owe.

This is Moscow's best defense at the moment, but it does not make its refusal to pay defensible.

RUSSIA has avoided a showdown to date by threatening to withdraw from the U.N. if Article 19 is enforced.

This probably is a bluff worth calling. Despite its truculence, Russia needs the U.N. Where else could it find such a ready-made international sounding board for the Soviet line?

While it is true that Russia's withdrawal, if actually carried out, could signal a breakup of the U.N., what real choice is there?

Continued failure to enforce Article 19 would sanction further withholding of financial support for political reasons, thus crippling the U.N. peace - keeping machinery.

The U.N. should insist that Russia pay up or shut up.

13th Or 14th?

If your problems seem a little more pressing and more perplexing today, shrug them off. It's Friday, the 13th!

If the same problems confront you tomorrow, however, it will take more than mere shrugging.

The Friday the 13th escape hatch won't work on Saturday the 14th.

Stocks And Blondes

By Gail Sheehy

Ralph Block is a young go-getter stock market analyst, a technical man, who consults charts to write his firm's market letter. He is not given to pondering the whims of young marrieds in the suburbs.

"Well they may be soft, Ralph, but they're spenders. I know from my son."

Ralph comes right up out of his chair at this meeting of the Wall Street Technicians and Analysts Society and shakes his finger at one of the five women who have been allowed into its sanctified membership.

"You see! That speech wasn't stock market anymore. That was pure maternalism," Ralph is sputtering. "That's perfect example of the kind of thinking you can expect from a woman broker."

The 30 men in this society are pretty well-known names on the Street. They meet twice a month to hash over market trends and they never lose an opportunity to put down one of the women. But these women brokers are smart. They know when they leave the yard in Bayshore and get down where the thin gray slices of streets hide between the Gothicky granite that for once they're in a real man's land. So they speak very softly.

SUE HABER is something else. Nobody can quite figure out how this 23-year-old dish with cornsilk hair and green eyes became a security analyst and got into the society. But no one is complaining.

When Susan steps off the train at Wall street in her high white heels and Fleurs de Rocaille perfume, she's the only girl who does. She rides up the brokerage office where she works and stares at the tape jumping across the wall and spends $30 and $40 thousand at a throw to buy stocks for institutions. She has almost no women customers.

"They're petty cash investors," says Susan. In five years Susan figures she'll be making $25,000 herself.

Susan fell into the market by going to college only one year, by starting on the switchboard at a brokerage, by advancing into its technical research department where she spent one hour a day typing and the rest playing dumb until the men taught her everything.

The other women in the Wall Street Technicians and Analysts Society know how to be cool too. They just sit there at the meeting at Fusco's drinking lemonade in their print dresses and eventually the men get worried they might know something after all.

"Are you getting greater demand for puts or calls, Annie?" one of the men is asking Ann Gertler. Ann is the only on the street in puts and calls. That means that over her phone come all the orders for stock opinions from 48 branches. She buys only for other brokers. Ann started working after high school in her father's stationery store.

"I fell in love with the market as a secretary in glycerine, fats and oils," says Ann deadpan. That's the kind of romantic outlook a woman has to have down here.

KATHY ZARRELLI made the society because she's the only woman in the board room of 35 men at E. F. Hutton. She too started as a secretary. The only time she has left the street in 11 years was for a few months to have a baby.

It was a Cesarean birth so she was awake to nail the obstetrician and anesthetist as customers right there on the delivery table, she said. She made her obstetrician $162,000 on his first buy.

The rare women who make it on Wall street, if they haven't hung around for years as a secretary devouring quotations, usually have come back from family-raising.

Weed In The Garden!

Reds Compounded Brazilian Chaos

By Victor Riesel

RIO DE JANEIRO

A Soviet master plan to use trade union power as a battering ram, first against the Brazilian government, then to topple a series of other Latin administrations and finally to cut the South American continent adrift from the U.S. in Cuban fashion, came to within a few hours of success.

Victor Riesel

To those in distant North America, this may sound melodramatic. But it's grim, substantiable fact to the intelligence services here.

In the words of the gentle jurist, now Minister of Justice Milton Campos, during our recent conversation: "The Communists had set up their factories of chaos and were producing disorganization at a great speed."

At the last minute the Communists were stopped by the military revolt of the democratic soldier, now President, Gen. Castello Branco. But he has not shot the Communists, nor jailed them. They walk about as the most above-ground underground force I've encountered. They're planning a comeback.

ON THE BASIS of the hundreds of financial records, international messages, letters and documents found in Communist headquarters and the unions they controlled, here is the story of their master plan's operation.

Since it is illegal in Brazil to set up a national central labor organization such as the AFL-CIO, the Communists, positively under direct orders from the central labor section in Moscow, created something here called the General Workers Command. Though it was against the law, the ousted President Joao Goulart permitted it to exist because of his deals with the Communists.

The Soviet - controlled leaders of this General Workers Command easily won power in such unions as the stevedores and the bank clerks.

THE COMMAND'S goal was the Confederation of Industrial Workers which had a membership of some five million. These were mostly in the heavily concentrated Sao Paulo and Rio areas—where American business has invested heavily. Thus, if successful, the Communist Command could not only control the bulk of Brazilian industry but also disrupt production in the American-owned plants which provide so many jobs for Brazilians.

The Communists succeeded easily enough. Soon they elected one of their top operatives, Clodsmidt Riani, head of the vast Industrial Workers Federation. Riani also was director of the powerful Soviet - controlled General Workers Command. Thus he became the strongest labor man in Brazil—and indeed, one of the nation's most influential men. I have before me an intelligence report which says flatly that Riani "operated on the same level as the president of the republic."

"He gave orders to ministers (members of the presidential cabinet)," asserts this report. "He installed at the joint Industrial Confederation-General Workers Command headquarters an employment agency for corruption and traffic of influence; he dictated dismissals of chiefs in various levels of public administration, including the military."

HE EVEN DICTATED to some officials of the Bank of Brazil during that period. Documents dug up by the counter-intelligence agents after the revolution indicated he dealt directly with army generals, naval commanders, foreign diplomats, senators and deputies—all of whom sought favors, transfers, promotions and governmental action.

At all times Riani kept in close touch with high Moscow government and labor officials.

When he or his comrades needed money for some operation, they took it either from the treasury of the Industrial Workers Labor Confederation—or actually from the pro-Communist, pre-revolution Brazilian government. There are documents to prove this. They disclose dealings in millions of cruzeiros.

Just to pick a few at random: When Riani needed money in January 1964 to re-elect his Communist comrades and himself to the leadership of the Industrial Workers Confederation, he simply drew over 21,457,000 cruzeiros from the government. When money was needed to run a pro-Goulart mass demonstration of the "people" in Rio to show support for the left-wing government on March 13, 1964, just 18 days before the military drove him out the Communists got 3 million cruzeiros for expenses.

MILLIONS WERE drawn for the Communist's drive for nationalization of industry. I have on hand a long list of such looting by the Communists. Some of the money went to Benedicto Cerqueira, a high official of the Soviet's global labor network called the World Federation of Trade Unions.

One of the Communists high in the General Workers Command was Osmildo Stafford da Bank and Credit Institution Workers. Now note this: He was also vice president of the General Workers Command. Thus he was deep in the core of the nation's financial structure.

He was the intellectual of the group of Communists commanders. So he was chosen to be the link with something called CUTAL — a continentwide Latin American Communist Federation of Labor.

This was in its burgeoning stage. It awaited the takeover of Brazil by the Communists' General Workers Command. Then money and manpower were to be poured into CUTAL, which in turn would help set up General Workers Commands in all other Latin nations.

THE NEXT STEP in the other nations would be to take over as the Communists were about to do in Brazil before the military stopped them.

After that the continent would have been "Cubanized." Communist dictatorship would have been established. Opponents would have been shot. American industry would have been confiscated. The Latin American world would have been controlled by a series of Castros.

It did not happen, thanks to the democratic military forces. There is much in all this that should be pondered by those who automatically oppose military juntas.

Rising Discontent

By David Lawrence

Resentment Seen Growing Against Viet War

The war in Viet Nam is getting more and more unpopular with the American people — and peace seems to be farther and farther away.

David Lawrence

The enemy — Namely, the Communist bloc in Asia—expects a long war, but is confident the United States will grow tired and find a way to wiggle out.

The real crisis at the moment is not on the battlefield at all, but in the realm of psychological warfare—what is being said by officials of the United States government. The impression being given by American spokesmen is that the government is impatient to end the war and that, while expressing repeatedly a determination to continue fighting indefinitely, it's nevertheless pleading in desperation for some kind of peace conference to negotiate a settlement.

Thus far the United Nations has done nothing to advance the cause of peace—nor has the Peking or Moscow government or the Hanoi regime in North Viet Nam. Doubtless they assume that, as the war grows more and more unpopular in the United States, the Washington government will find that for political reasons it will have to develop a graceful method of withdrawing from the combat.

President Johnson has tried hard to convince members of Congress that such dissenting views as have been expressed in this country give an impression of disunity and should not be soft-pedalled but members of Congress are reflecting what they feel is the sentiment back home.

POLITICIANS know that again and again in American history the people have voted against the party that was in power when wars were fought. Even in the November election of 1918—just a few days before Armistice and while the war was going on intensively—President Wilson's appeal for a Democratic congress was rejected. The country voted overwhelmingly for the Republican party in both houses.

Again, in 1946, just after the close of World War II, President Truman lost both houses of Congress to the Republicans. In November 1952, although the armistice in Korea was being negotiated, resentment over the fact that American troops had gone to Korea was widespread, and Dwight Eisenhower was elected by a substantial majority of electoral votes.

Theoretically, of course, during a war the country is unified but this does not mean that a spirit of discontent is not present. It's later on that the resentment is fully expressed.

The current change in American public opinion started two weeks ago when President Johnson announced that he would not call up the reserves right away but would increase the draft. There are millions of young men of draft age. The draft call might be small at the present time, but in every home where there is a son aged 18 or older, there begins to be a feeling of apprehension as to whether he will be called.

ON WEDNESDAY of this week, The Chicago Tribune printed across its front page a banner headline which said: "Married Men Draft Seen." The news story reported that John H. Hammack, Selective Service director of Illinois, had said that, while he had not received any such word yet from Washington, he believed that if heavy draft calls continue, married men without children would face being drafted late this year or early next year.

Just mention in public statements that increases in the draft calls are to be made is to cause in millions of homes a feeling of uncertainty and uneasiness, and this is what is happening throughout the country today.

In previous crises, the issues have been clear cut. The people have been able to see exactly what was at stake, and they have recognized — as, for instance, when the attack came on Pearl Harbor — that the United States had no choice.

Before World War I, American passenger ships on the high seas were being sunk with the loss of American lives. Peopeople somehow felt that the war had touched in a vital spot and that they had to respond.

THE WAR IN KOREA, on the other hand, was farther away, just as is the war in Viet Nam, and it is much harder to get across to the people that the issues are related directly to the future safety of this country.

If the Viet Nam War continues without any substantial change and drags out through the congressional campaign and the elections of November 1966, it would not be at all surprising to find the party in power decisively defeated, and a Republican majority elected in both houses.

Such landslides have occurred before, as the American people —when they don't understand clearly the issues in a war or when they think it is not being effectively fought—are likely to express at the polls their resentment against the party in power.

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

On several occasions, The Review has mentioned in both its regular news and editorial columns about the Ohio state law which states that lights on passenger automobiles must be turned on one - half hour before sunrise and one-half hour before sunset.

In spite of your efforts, practically no one ever turns them on morning or evening. Sunday evening I had mine on and an approaching car turned its lights on, then off, to remind or warn me mine were on. Imagine!

Another thing, at Walnut and Bradshaw, autos shoot off the supermarket lot and come up Bradshaw or left or right on Walnut. First of all, it's not allowed, as they do this at 6:15 a.m. Furthermore, if they do it, the light should be green in favor of Bradshaw Ave. cars. But they shoot out on the red light for Bradshaw Ave. cars.

Driving a car gets tougher each day. We all could help by being careful. There's a stop sign on Maine Blvd. at Vine St. and Ambrose Ave. Virtually everyone ignores it by never stopping.

The police cruiser is the only car I see stop for this sign.

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

I was reading in Monday's Review of the Senate - House drive to pierce government secrecy by making more records available to the public — all but national security records.

This has been talked about in Washington for a long time. I don't think it will hurt any one unless they are guilty of using their high office to feather their nest and their friends' nest.

These gentlemen have been sworn under oath to do their job to the best of their ability. Or could this mean someone in Washington in high office is afraid they might see the Baker case brought out in the open; and last, but not least, the Jenkins case?

If that's all there is to it, let's write our representative and see this thing that was swept under the rugs brought out in the open before 1968.

What's In Name?

Dragonflies ornament thousands of lakes and streams in summer, but the glistening creatures are victims of gross misnomer and myths. They are not flies, much less dragons.

As harmless as it is handsome, this agile insect is saddled with popular names such as devil's darning needle, sewing needle, bee butcher, mosquito hawk, horse stinger, snake feeder and snake doctor.

Legends say dragonflies sew up the mouths of children who tell lies and stitch together the toes of barefoot, sleeping fishermen, especially those who are prone to fib. The insects are reputed both to feed hungry snakes and sting them to death.

The dragonfly belongs to the great insect order Odonata, whose 5,000 species are scattered the world over wherever there is fresh water.

The iridescent brilliance of the insects has attracted men for centuries.

What Else Can They Say?

Among the ho-hum items in the day's news is the totally expected statement from the Ohio Council for Education that the whopping $633 million school foundation bill approved by the legislature is "a second-class program."

It is second-class because it adds $108 million more in public school aid for the next two years than was spent in the preceding two—the largest increase ever voted in Ohio.

It is second-class because it won't cost taxpayers a penny more than they're paying now to give every teacher in Ohio a $200 raise and provide substantial improvements throughout the foundation formula.

A FIRST-CLASS program, by OCE standards, would add $232 million for the next two years by jumping the state sales tax from 3 to 4 per cent—a 33 1-3 per cent increase.

The OCE, made up of the Ohio Education Association and other school groups, tried unsuccessfully to push the tax increase through the General Assembly. Undaunted, the OCE will put the proposition before the voters Nov. 2.

While we won't attempt to say the newly enacted foundation bill represents the ultimate in state support, we feel we can say without successful contradiction that it represents the best that can be had without new taxes.

We think the legislature, by enacting a record school subsidy bill, has stolen whatever steam remained in the OCE proposal.

And we think the OCE would be singing the same sad song no matter how much was in the new foundation bill as long as it fell short of the tax-backed $232 million increase proposal.

This is why OCE Director James Brennan's statement about "a second-class program" will leave no one gaping in surprise.

WHAT ELSE could he say? What else will the OCE be able to say in its forlorn effort to convince voters they should impose a 33 1-3 per cent tax increase on themselves.

The education lobby has dubbed its tax proposal PEP—Plan for Educational Progress.

Now's The Time

Directors of the Lake Erie-Ohio River Highway Association must feel they have just cause or they would not have asked for a meeting with state highway officials on what they have termed an effort to "downgrade" construction on the new thoroughfare from here to Ashtabula.

There's this about it — if there's any question relative to the construction program, now's the time to take action, not after the roadway is in place.

It's easier to alter plans on the drawing board and re-write specifications than it is to dig up a roadway and start over after it has been laid. And few are ripped apart once in place.

Pay Up Or Shut Up

The thorny issue of peace-keeping assessments which has had the United Nations stuck on dead center for more than a year will be brought up again next week by a special 33-nation committee.

It will be interesting to hear the reaction of our new U.N. ambassador, Arthur J. Goldberg, who has just denied a report that he is willing to make concessions to the Soviet Union and a dozen other nations which have reneged on payments.

THE REPORT had indicated Goldberg was willing to shelve Article 19 of the U.N. Charter which says any country two years behind in its peace-keeping payments shall have no vote in the General Assembly.

We hope Goldberg was, in fact, misquoted. We hope further that the U.S. position on the assessment dispute is reflected by Senate Republican Leader Everett Dirksen.

Sen. Dirksen says his colleagues "are real tired" of temporizing on the issue and that the time has come for the U.S. to call for a showdown in the United Nations.

If a showdown is called it obviously will amount to a confrontation with the Soviet Union. Although Russia is only one of 13 countries in arrears, it is the chief offender. The Soviets owe the U.N. more than $60 million and would have to cough up about $22 million to get off the two-year list.

Russia has argued consistently that only the U.N. Security Council can make decisions regarding peace - keeping operations. Russia wants it that way because one negative vote on the Security Council amounts to a veto—and the Soviets have exercised the veto more than 100 times since the U.N. was founded.

But the U.N. General Assembly has clear authority to approve collective security measures by majority vote any time a veto blocks a Security Council action. And the International Court of Justice ruled in 1962 that peace-keeping operations are not the exclusive province of the Security Council.

A far better argument by Russia is that any rule applied to one nation must apply to all. Russia cannot be required to pay while France, Belgium and others are permitted to vote and owe.

This is Moscow's best defense at the moment, but it does not make its refusal to pay defensible.

RUSSIA has avoided a showdown to date by threatening to withdraw from the U.N. if Article 19 is enforced.

This probably is a bluff worth calling. Despite its truculence, Russia needs the U.N. Where else could it find such a ready-made international sounding board for the Soviet line?

While it is true that Russia's withdrawal, if actually carried out, could signal a breakup of the U.N., what real choice is there?

Continued failure to enforce Article 19 would sanction further withholding of financial support for political reasons, thus crippling the U.N. peace - keeping machinery.

The U.N. should insist that Russia pay up or shut up.

13th Or 14th?

If your problems seem a little more pressing and more perplexing today, shrug them off. It's Friday, the 13th!

If the same problems confront you tomorrow, however, it will take more than mere shrugging.

The Friday the 13th escape hatch won't work on Saturday the 14th.

Stocks And Blondes

By Gail Sheehy

Ralph Block is a young go-getter stock market analyst, a technical man, who consults charts to write his firm's market letter. He is not given to pondering the whims of young marrieds in the suburbs.

"Well they may be soft, Ralph, but they're spenders. I know from my son."

Ralph comes right up out of his chair at this meeting of the Wall Street Technicians and Analysts Society and shakes his finger at one of the five women who have been allowed into its sanctified membership.

"You see! That speech wasn't stock market anymore. That was pure maternalism," Ralph is sputtering. "That's perfect example of the kind of thinking you can expect from a woman broker."

Edna Rafael is a middle-aged housewife turned stockbroker.

The 30 men in this society are pretty well-known names on the Street. They meet twice a month to hash over market trends and they never lose an opportunity to put down one of the women. But these women brokers are smart. They know when they leave the yard in Bayshore and get down where the thin gray slices of streets hide between the Gothicky granite that for once they're in a real man's land. So they speak very softly.

SUE HABER is something else. Nobody can quite figure out how this 23-year-old dish with cornsilk hair and green eyes became a security analyst and got into the society. But no one is complaining.

When Susan steps off the train at Wall street in her high white heels and Fleurs de Rocaille perfume, she's the only girl who does. She rides up the brokerage office where she works and stares at the tape jumping across the wall and spends $30 and $40 thousand at a throw to buy stocks for institutions. She has almost no women customers.

"They're petty cash investors," says Susan. In five years Susan figures she'll be making $25,000 herself.

Susan fell into the market by going to college only one year, by starting on the switchboard at a brokerage, by advancing into its technical research department where she spent one hour a day typing and the rest playing dumb until the men taught her everything.

The other women in the Wall Street Technicians and Analysts Society know how to be cool too. They just sit there at the meeting at Fusco's drinking lemonade in their print dresses and eventually the men get worried they might know something after all.

"Are you getting greater demand for puts or calls, Annie?" one of the men is asking Ann Gertler. Ann is the only on the street in puts and calls. That means that over her phone come all the orders for stock opinions from 48 branches. She buys only for other brokers. Ann started working after high school in her father's stationery store.

"I fell in love with the market as a secretary in glycerine, fats and oils," says Ann deadpan. That's the kind of romantic outlook a woman has to have down here.

KATHY ZARRELLI made the society because she's the only woman in the board room of 35 men at E. F. Hutton. She too started as a secretary. The only time she has left the street in 11 years was for a few months to have a baby.

It was a Cesarean birth so she was awake to nail the obstetrician and anesthetist as customers right there on the delivery table, she said. She made her obstetrician $162,000 on his first buy.

The rare women who make it on Wall street, if they haven't hung around for years as a secretary devouring quotations, usually have come back from family-raising.

Reds Compounded Brazilian Chaos

By Victor Riesel

RIO DE JANEIRO

A Soviet master plan to use trade union power as a battering ram, first against the Brazilian government, then to topple a series of other Latin administrations and finally to cut the South American continent adrift from the U.S. in Cuban fashion, came to within a few hours of success.

Victor Riesel

To those in distant North America, this may sound melodramatic. But it's grim, substantiable fact to the intelligence services here.

In the words of the gentle jurist, now Minister of Justice Milton Campos, during our recent conversation: "The Communists had set up their factories of chaos and were producing disorganization at a great speed."

At the last minute the Communists were stopped by the military revolt of the democratic soldier, now President, Gen. Castello Branco. But he has not shot the Communists, nor jailed them. They walk about as the most above-ground underground force I've encountered. They're planning a comeback.

ON THE BASIS of the hundreds of financial records, international messages, letters and documents found in Communist headquarters and the unions they controlled, here is the story of their master plan's operation.

Since it is illegal in Brazil to set up a national central labor organization such as the AFL-CIO, the Communists, positively under direct orders from the central labor section in Moscow, created something here called the General Workers Command. Though it was against the law, the ousted President Joao Goulart permitted it to exist because of his deals with the Communists.

The Soviet - controlled leaders of this General Workers Command easily won power in such unions as the stevedores and the bank clerks.

THE COMMAND'S goal was the Confederation of Industrial Workers which had a membership of some five million. These were mostly in the heavily concentrated Sao Paulo and Rio areas—where American business has invested heavily. Thus, if successful, the Communist Command could not only control the bulk of Brazilian industry but also disrupt production in the American-owned plants which provide so many jobs for Brazilians.

The Communists succeeded easily enough. Soon they elected one of their top operatives, Clodsmidt Riani, head of the vast Industrial Workers Federation. Riani also was director of the powerful Soviet - controlled General Workers Command. Thus he became the strongest labor man in Brazil—and indeed, one of the nation's most influential men. I have before me an intelligence report which says flatly that Riani "operated on the same level as the president of the republic."

"He gave orders to ministers (members of the presidential cabinet)," asserts this report. "He installed at the joint Industrial Confederation-General Workers Command headquarters an employment agency for corruption and traffic of influence; he dictated dismissals of chiefs in various levels of public administration, including the military."

HE EVEN DICTATED to some officials of the Bank of Brazil during that period. Documents dug up by the counter-intelligence agents after the revolution indicated he dealt directly with army generals, naval commanders, foreign diplomats, senators and deputies—all of whom sought favors, transfers, promotions and governmental action.

At all times Riani kept in close touch with high Moscow government and labor officials.

When he or his comrades needed money for some operation, they took it either from the treasury of the Industrial Workers Labor Confederation—or actually from the pro-Communist, pre-revolution Brazilian government. There are documents to prove this. They disclose dealings in millions of cruzeiros.

Just to pick a few at random: When Riani needed money in January 1964 to re-elect his Communist comrades and himself to the leadership of the Industrial Workers Confederation, he simply drew over 21,457,000 cruzeiros from the government. When money was needed to run a pro-Goulart mass demonstration of the "people" in Rio to show support for the left-wing government on March 13, 1964, just 18 days before the military drove him out the Communists got 3 million cruzeiros for expenses.

MILLIONS WERE drawn for the Communist's drive for nationalization of industry. I have on hand a long list of such looting by the Communists. Some of the money went to Benedicto Cerqueira, a high official of the Soviet's global labor network called the World Federation of Trade Unions.

One of the Communists high in the General Workers Command was Osmildo Stafford da Bank and Credit Institution Workers. Now note this: He was also vice president of the General Workers Command. Thus he was deep in the core of the nation's financial structure.

He was the intellectual of the group of Communists commanders. So he was chosen to be the link with something called CUTAL — a continentwide Latin American Communist Federation of Labor.

This was in its burgeoning stage. It awaited the takeover of Brazil by the Communists' General Workers Command. Then money and manpower were to be poured into CUTAL, which in turn would help set up General Workers Commands in all other Latin nations.

THE NEXT STEP in the other nations would be to take over as the Communists were about to do in Brazil before the military stopped them.

After that the continent would have been "Cubanized." Communist dictatorship would have been established. Opponents would have been shot. American industry would have been confiscated. The Latin American world would have been controlled by a series of Castros.

It did not happen, thanks to the democratic military forces. There is much in all this that should be pondered by those who automatically oppose military juntas.

Rising Discontent

Resentment Seen Growing Against Viet War

Medicare And Social Security

You Can Still Earn, Draw Benefits

By JOHN TROAN
NEA Special Writer

You don't have to quit working altogether to draw a Social Security retirement benefit.

Starting with 1966, you'll be able to collect your full benefit as long as you don't earn more than $1,500 a year, compared with $1,200 now. Even if you earn more, you may be eligible for some Social Security checks.

And no matter how much you make in one year, you will be entitled — effective 1966 — to your regular Social Security check for any month in which you don't earn more than $125 compared with $100 now.

IF YOU are self - employed, the same rules apply. However, you can't get a check for any month in which you perform "substantial services" even if your net earnings (profits) for that month fail to exceed the limit.

There is no hard - and - fast definition of "substantial services." Generally, it means devoting more than 45 hours to your business during one month.

The ceiling on earnings is lifted the month you reach age 72. Then, you forfeit no Social Security benefits regardless of how much you earn.

In figuring your earnings, you count only such things as wages, salaries, commissions, and what you net from self - employment.

You do not count investment income (such as stock dividends), interest on bank deposits, rents you collect, private pensions, endowments on insurance policies, veterans' benefits, gifts, inheritances, capital gains, or royalties collected after age 65 from copyrights or patents you obtained before 65.

HOWEVER, rental income is counted if you are a real estate dealer or if you rent out your own farm under an agreement permitting you to "participate materially" in "production or management of production." And dividends are counted if you deal in securities.

A wife's earnings do not affect a retired worker's benefits. But they are counted against her Social Security benefit if she is drawing one along with her husband.

On the other hand, earnings of a retired worker may count against any benefits his dependents are drawing — as well as against his own.

The ceiling on earnings applies also to widows and children getting Social Security checks. But a widow's earnings don't count against her children's benefits — and her children's earnings don't count against her benefit.

During 1965, you may earn up to $1,200 without losing any Social Security benefits. If you make more, $1 is taken out of your total year's benefit for each additional $2 earned. After you earn $1,700, a dollar is subtracted for every additionl dollar of earnings.

EFFECTIVE 1966, this will be eased. You may earn up to $2,700 a year — instead of just $1,700 — before the dollar-for-dollar rule sets in.

Thus, from 1966 on: You may earn up to $1,500 without losing any benefits. After that, $1 is taken out of your annual benefit for every $2 earned. And after you make $2,700 in a year, a dollar is subtracted for every additional dollar of earnings.

This means a person under 72 who is drawing a Social Security retirement benefit and continues to be employed regularly could earn $2,556 to $5,811 a year before losing all his benefits.

The exact amount depends on the size of the benefit, the type, and how earnings are spread out over the year. In general, you may — effective 1966—draw some Social Security payment in your monthly benefit (or family benefit) is at least $50 and your earnings for the year don't equal 12 times the benefit amount plus $2,100.

The sergeant said he felt "there are many outstanding young men in the East Liverpool area who would make good highway patrol officers" and stressed that it is important for them to act now.

"Take advantage of the patrol's accelerated recruitment program and inquire about the opportunities to be found in a career as an Ohio State Highway Patrolman."

The Lisbon patrol post is located along Route 30 south of Lisbon. The phone number is 424-7767.

James L. Floyd, 18, of Ashtabula is being held in the county jail on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon. He allegedly hit Bruckman over the head.

Medicare And Social Security

You Can Still Earn, Draw Benefits

By JOHN TROAN
NEA Special Writer

You don't have to quit working altogether to draw a Social Security retirement benefit.

Starting with 1966, you'll be able to collect your full benefit as long as you don't earn more than $1,500 a year, compared with $1,200 now. Even if you earn more, you may be eligible for some Social Security checks.

And no matter how much you make in one year, you will be entitled — effective 1966 — to your regular Social Security check for any month in which you don't earn more than $125 compared with $100 now.

IF YOU are self - employed, the same rules apply. However, you can't get a check for any month in which you perform "substantial services" even if your net earnings (profits) for that month fail to exceed the limit.

There is no hard - and - fast definition of "substantial services." Generally, it means devoting more than 45 hours to your business during one month.

The ceiling on earnings is lifted the month you reach age 72. Then, you forfeit no Social Security benefits regardless of how much you earn.

In figuring your earnings, you count only such things as wages, salaries, commissions, and what you net from self - employment.

You do not count investment income (such as stock dividends), interest on bank deposits, rents you collect, private pensions, endowments on insurance policies, veterans' benefits, gifts, inheritances, capital gains, or royalties collected after age 65 from copyrights or patents you obtained before 65.

HOWEVER, rental income is counted if you are a real estate dealer or if you rent out your own farm under an agreement permitting you to "participate materially" in "production or management of production." And dividends are counted if you deal in securities.

A wife's earnings do not affect a retired worker's benefits. But they are counted against her Social Security benefit if she is drawing one along with her husband.

On the other hand, earnings of a retired worker may count against any benefits his dependents are drawing — as well as against his own.

The ceiling on earnings applies also to widows and children getting Social Security checks. But a widow's earnings don't count against her children's benefits — and her children's earnings don't count against her benefit.

During 1965, you may earn up to $1,200 without losing any Social Security benefits. If you make more, $1 is taken out of your total year's benefit for each additional $2 earned. After you earn $1,700, a dollar is subtracted for every additionl dollar of earnings.

EFFECTIVE 1966, this will be eased. You may earn up to $2,700 a year — instead of just $1,700 — before the dollar-for-dollar rule sets in.

Thus, from 1966 on: You may earn up to $1,500 without losing any benefits. After that, $1 is taken out of your annual benefit for every $2 earned. And after you make $2,700 in a year, a dollar is subtracted for every additional dollar of earnings.

This means a person under 72 who is drawing a Social Security retirement benefit and continues to be employed regularly could earn $2,556 to $5,811 a year before losing all his benefits.

The exact amount depends on the size of the benefit, the type, and how earnings are spread out over the year. In general, you may — effective 1966—draw some Social Security payment in your monthly benefit (or family benefit) is at least $50 and your earnings for the year don't equal 12 times the benefit amount plus $2,100.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Only You Can Make Your Dreams Come True

Overweight can be heartbreak, particularly when you are young. Keep your eating habits on the right course. One happy day you will be ideal weight. Get with exercise and you can be willowy instead of billowy.

Ida Jean Kain

Teeners, perhaps you do not look upon your three meals a day as the way to slim down beautifully. Actually, there is no other way! Your food habits and your exercise have everything to do with your weight, your pep. . .and your happiness.

—:—

THE FORMULA for slimming: Desire plus discipline equals shining success. From here on, you are going to eat and beat the pounds and exercise to banish bulges. Get your posture on the slim - up - and-down muscle track. Pull up with girdle muscles, and down and under with the big muscles. Under where? Under you!

Let a former overweight girl tell you. . ."Dieting can be tough during the growing years. When you stick with a slimming program for a week you feel so hungry. You lose two little pounds and decide another week wouldn't be worth it. Hold on girls. . .the worst is over now!

"While struggling to cope with pounds, aim toward a goal, instead of rebelling. Keep your goal vividly in mind. Learn to hold yourself beautifully. Look your best, then you won't want to let yourself go and eat like crazy.

"You won't get thin overnight, but if you will hold on to your dreams, you can grow as a person, and then, to your own surprise, you'll find you no longer feel compelled to overeat."

THAT INSPIRING message was from a young girl who started gaining at age 9, and by 15 she weighed 185 pounds, wore matronly dresses and was miserably unhappy. She is now a 135 pound beauty. . . and the happy young mother of four sons. Her name? Maria Riva. She's Marlene Dietrich's lovely daughter.

Try this slimming psychology. Look at tempting weight-makers as the reason you are left on the sidelines. It's surprising how this eye-opener can change your attitude. "Do I want that chocolate bar, or do I want a neat-sweet figure and hear the telephone ring?" It's morale building to voice your choice right out loud. On the spot recognize that the choice is yours. How silly to settle for a fleeting taste when by a switch in thought you can bring your goal in focus. Be a winner mentally!

This ends the special series, but we'll all be pulling for you. Report your progress if you wish. Happy, healthy slimming, teeners!

Your dietitian is now off on vacation. I'll be back Labor Day.

Send stamped, self - addressed long envelope for teen - age Slimming Challenge and Isometric Exercises. Address your request to Ida Jean Kain, care of The Review. Post card requests cannot be answered.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Friday, Aug. 13, the 225th day of 1965. There are 140 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1898, the Spanish surrendered Manila to Gen. Wesley Merritt after a land assault and bombardment by a U.S. fleet led by Ad. George Dewey.

On this date

In 1818, Lucy Stone was born. Married to Dr. Henry Blackwell, she kept the name Lucy Stone in her long fight for women's rights. Ever since, married women using their maiden names have been called "Lucy Stoners."

In 1910, pioneer English nurse Florence Nightingale died.

In 1918, Czechoslovakia was recognized as an Allied nation.

In 1944, Adm. Chester Nimitz predicted the Japanese might be forced to surrender without an invasion of their home islands.

Ten years ago — Moscow announced it would reduce armed forces as a result of what is called an easing of international tension.

Five years ago — Rain caused by Typhoon Wendy killed at least 18 persons in central Japan.

One year ago -- Secretary-General U Thant asked for more soldiers to strengthen the U.N. peace force on Cyprus.

More Fighting Breaks Out In Kashmir Capital

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — New fighting broke out in Kashmir's capital early today.

The Indian government radio said infiltrators from Pakistan attacked the police barracks in Srinagar, the Kashmiri capital, at 1:30 a.m., and that firing in the city's outskirts was still continuing at 8 a.m.

But "the situation is in hand," the broadcast added.

A government spokesman said 109 "infiltrators" and 41 Indian troops have been killed since fighting started Aug. 5.

New Delhi claims 1,000 to 1,500 Pakistanis on that date crossed the cease-fire line separating the Indian and Pakistan armies since their 1947-48 war over Kashmir. But Kashmiris were being arrested as accomplices of the infiltrators, and a large cache of weapons and ammunition was reported found in a Srinagar mosque.

Smith Plans Meeting On Beauty Of W.Va.

CHARLESTON (AP) — Gov. Hulett Smith is planning a conference on West Virginia's natural beauty. The statewide session probably will be held in October, the governor said.

The meeting would explore ways to implement recommendations of the recent White House conference on natural beauty. Smith said it could develop legislation for consideration next January.

Cincinnati Policeman Puts 2 Sons Under House Arrest

CINCINNATI Anthony Cucinotta Jr., 9 and his brother, Robert, 8, have been placed under house arrest by their father—policeman Anthony Cucinotta.

Patrolman Cucinotta received "quite a jolt" Thursday when he was dispatched to a swimming hole where two boys were reported to have drowned.

When he arrived he discovered one of the boys was his son, Anthony. The other boy was Jeff Fisher, 10. Both were unconscious.

They were taken to Children's Hospital and reported to be recovering.

The Cucinotta brothers, Fisher and two other boys were playing near the swimming hole at a dam in West Fork Creek.

One of the youths, Duane Williams, 11, was credited with rescuing the two from the 10-foot deep water. Duane then rushed to a nearby home and sought further help.

The boys were revived at the scene by a fire department squad.

The five boys had been throwing rocks into the water and then they began pushing each other and the two fell in, police said.

Patrolman Cucinotta said, "I had a feeling it was my boys as I drove up there. I knew they were in the area."

"They've been warned time and again to keep away from that creek. But all I have to do is tell them not to do something and that's the first thing they do."

The policeman said he didn't know the name of the Williams boy. "I had to ask him his name to thank him," he said.

"When Tony is released from the hospital both he and Bob are going to be under house arrest for a while.

"And they're also going to learn how to swim."

The lichen (pronounced lieken) is a plant that is unique in that it exists without having any true roots, stems or leaves. It grows in greenish, gray, yellow, or brown crust-like patches or bush-like forms on rocks, trees and the like.

Ohio Farmer Plans KKK Rally Aug. 21

LEBANON, Ohio (AP)—Parkie Scott, whose farm at nearby Oregonia in Warren County was the scene of a rally by the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan last Memorial Day, said he is planning a similar rally for Aug. 21 in Cuyahoga County.

Scott said he would announce the exact location of the one-day rally on Saturday, but added it probably would be somewhere near Strongsville, a Cleveland suburb.

Speakers, he said, will include KKK Imperial Wizard James R. Veable of Stone Mountain, Ga.; William Morris, grand emperor from Buchanan, Ga., and a Baptist minister from Atlanta, the Rev. W. H. Hill.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Only You Can Make Your Dreams Come True

Overweight can be heart-break, particularly when you are young. Keep your eating habits on the right course. One happy day you will be ideal weight. Get with exercise and you can be willowy instead of billowy.

Ida Jean Kain

Teeners, perhaps you do not look upon three meals a day as the way to slim down beautifully. Actually, there is no other way! Your food habits and your exercise have everything to do with your weight, your pep. . .and your happiness.

—:—

THE FORMULA for slimming: Desire plus discipline equals shining success. From here on, you are going to eat and beat the pounds and exercise to banish bulges. Get your posture on the slim - up - and-down muscle track. Pull up with girdle muscles, and down and under with the big muscles. Under where? Under you!

Let a former overweight girl tell you. . ."Dieting can be tough during the growing years. When you stick with a slimming program for a week you feel so hungry. You lose two little pounds and decide another week wouldn't be worth it. Hold on girls. . .the worst is over now!

"While struggling to cope with pounds, aim toward a goal, instead of rebelling. Keep your goal vividly in mind. Learn to hold yourself beautifully. Look your best, then you won't want to let yourself go and eat like crazy.

"You won't get thin overnight, but if you will hold on to your dreams, you can grow as a person, and then, to your own surprise, you'll find you no longer feel compelled to overeat."

THAT INSPIRING message was from a young girl who started gaining at age 9, and by 15 she weighed 185 pounds, wore matronly dresses and was miserably unhappy. She is now a 135 pound beauty. . . and the happy young mother of four sons. Her name? Maria Riva. She's Marlene Dietrich's lovely daughter.

Try this slimming psychology. Look at tempting weight-makers as the reason you are left on the sidelines. It's surprising how this eye-opener can change your attitude. "Do I want that chocolate bar, or do I want a neat-sweet figure and hear the telephone ring?" It's morale building to voice your choice right out loud. On the spot recognize that the choice is yours. How silly to settle for a fleeting taste when by a switch in thought you can bring your goal in focus. Be a winner mentally!

This ends the special series, but we'll all be pulling for you. Report your progress if you wish. Happy, healthy slimming, teeners!

Your dietitian is now off on vacation. I'll be back Labor Day.

Send stamped, self - addressed long envelope for teen - age Slimming Challenge and Isometric Exercises. Address your request to Ida Jean Kain, care of The Review. Post card requests cannot be answered.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Friday, Aug. 13, the 225th day of 1965. There are 140 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1898, the Spanish surrendered Manila to Gen. Wesley Merritt after a land assault and bombardment by a U.S. fleet led by Ad. George Dewey.

On this date

In 1818, Lucy Stone was born. Married to Dr. Henry Blackwell, she kept the name Lucy Stone in her long fight for women's rights. Ever since, married women using their maiden names have been called "Lucy Stoners."

In 1910, pioneer English nurse Florence Nightingale died.

In 1918, Czechoslovakia was recognized as an Allied nation.

In 1944, Adm. Chester Nimitz predicted the Japanese might be forced to surrender without an invasion of their home islands.

Ten years ago — Moscow announced it would reduce armed forces as a result of what is called an easing of international tension.

Five years ago — Rain caused by Typhoon Wendy killed at least 18 persons in central Japan.

One year ago -- Secretary-General U Thant asked for more soldiers to strengthen the U.N. peace force on Cyprus.

More Fighting Breaks Out In Kashmir Capital

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — New fighting broke out in Kashmir's capital early today.

The Indian government radio said infiltrators from Pakistan attacked the police barracks in Srinagar, the Kashmiri capital, at 1:30 a.m., and that firing in the city's outskirts was still continuing at 8 a.m.

But "the situation is in hand," the broadcast added.

A government spokesman said 109 "infiltrators" and 41 Indian troops have been killed since fighting started Aug. 5.

New Delhi claims 1,000 to 1,500 Pakistanis on that date crossed the cease-fire line separating the Indian and Pakistan armies since their 1947-48 war over Kashmir. But Kashmiris were being arrested as accomplices of the infiltrators, and a large cache of weapons and ammunition was reported found in a Srinagar mosque.

Smith Plans Meeting On Beauty Of W.Va.

CHARLESTON (AP) — Gov. Hulett Smith is planning a conference on West Virginia's natural beauty. The statewide session probably will be held in October, the governor said.

The meeting would explore ways to implement recommendations of the recent White House conference on natural beauty. Smith said it could develop legislation for consideration next January.

Cincinnati Policeman Puts 2 Sons Under House Arrest

CINCINNATI Anthony Cucinotta Jr., 9 and his brother, Robert, 8, have been placed under house arrest by their father—policeman Anthony Cucinotta.

Patrolman Cucinotta received "quite a jolt" Thursday when he was dispatched to a swimming hole where two boys were reported to have drowned.

When he arrived he discovered one of the boys was his son, Anthony. The other boy was Jeff Fisher, 10. Both were unconscious.

They were taken to Children's Hospital and reported to be recovering.

The Cucinotta brothers, Fisher and two other boys were playing near the swimming hole at a dam in West Fork Creek.

One of the youths, Duane Williams, 11, was credited with rescuing the two from the 10-foot deep water. Duane then rushed to a nearby home and sought further help.

The boys were revived at the scene by a fire department squad.

The five boys had been throwing rocks into the water and then they began pushing each other and the two fell in, police said.

Patrolman Cucinotta said, "I had a feeling it was my boys as I drove up there. I knew they were in the area."

"They've been warned time and again to keep away from that creek. But all I have to do is tell them not to do something and that's the first thing they do."

The policeman said he didn't know the name of the Williams boy. "I had to ask him his name to thank him," he said.

"When Tony is released from the hospital both he and Bob are going to be under house arrest for a while.

"And they're also going to learn how to swim."

The lichen (pronounced lieken) is a plant that is unique in that it exists without having any true roots, stems or leaves. It grows in greenish, gray, yellow, or brown crust-like patches or bush-like forms on rocks, trees and the like.

It Took Hose, Dog, Cat To Get Job Done

MELBOURNE (AP) — Workmen wanted to run a public address system wire through a small culvert under a road at Franklinford, 70 miles north of Melbourne.

They did what has been done before — tied the wire to a cat, pushed it into the pipe and called from the other end. But this time the cat stopped halfway.

So they put in a dog to flush out the cat, but the dog stayed there with the cat. So they called the fire brigade which hosed the dog which crowded the cat which took the wire through.

Man To Be Given Hearing

A Sunnyside man was arraigned today in Municipal Court for the $180 armed robbery of a 24-year-old Glenmoor man, who claimed he was struck on the head with a brick early this morning before being robbed.

A hearing for William G. Bowen of 932 Florence St. was continued until Tuesday by Judge Samuel M. Chertoff after the defendant asked time to obtain counsel. His bond was set at $1,000.

Roy Franklin Cline of Martha St., who was treated at City Hospital for a laceration on the back of the head after allegedly being struck by the brick, told police that Bowen robbed him in Grape Alley, which runs parallel to and between Florence and May Sts.

Patrolman R. J. Brookes and H. E. Frontz said Cline made the statement in the presence of Bowen after officers located the pair at W. 6th St. and Persimmon Alley walking in the direction of the hospital. Cline was bleeding from the head, they said.

Cline told the officers he had cashed two checks earlier at the Green Mill on Dresden Ave. and had nine $20 bills and a few $1's. He was taken to the hospital by the officers for treatment..

Officers said they received a call from an unidentified woman that she had overheard a conversation between two men and one was threatening to beat the other.

Father, 85, Son, 50, Team Up In Teaching

MIAMI (AP) — An 85-year-old Cuban exile and his 50-year-old son jointly teach medical Spanish at the University of Miami.

The father, Dr. Luis F. Rodriguez, a urologist and former University of Havana president, came here in 1960. He teamed up with his son, Dr. Luis R. Rodriguez, who was teaching Spanish at the university but needed help in medical terminology.

The course, aimed at preparing doctors and nurses for Spanish conversation in their profession, has been attended by more than 500 since its start three years ago.

It Took Hose, Dog, Cat To Get Job Done

MELBOURNE (AP) — Workmen wanted to run a public address system wire through a small culvert under a road at Franklinford, 70 miles north of Melbourne.

They did what has been done before — tied the wire to a cat, pushed it into the pipe and called from the other end. But this time the cat stopped halfway.

So they put in a dog to flush out the cat, but the dog stayed there with the cat. So they called the fire brigade which hosed the dog which crowded the cat which took the wire through.

Man To Be Given Hearing

A Sunnyside man was arraigned today in Municipal Court for the $180 armed robbery of a 24-year-old Glenmoor man, who claimed he was struck on the head with a brick early this morning before being robbed.

A hearing for William G. Bowen of 932 Florence St. was continued until Tuesday by Judge Samuel M. Chertoff after the defendant asked time to obtain counsel. His bond was set at $1,000.

Roy Franklin Cline of Martha St., who was treated at City Hospital for a laceration on the back of the head after allegedly being struck by the brick, told police that Bowen robbed him in Grape Alley, which runs parallel to and between Florence and May Sts.

Patrolman R. J. Brookes and H. E. Frontz said Cline made the statement in the presence of Bowen after officers located the pair at W. 6th St. and Persimmon Alley walking in the direction of the hospital. Cline was bleeding from the head, they said.

Cline told the officers he had cashed two checks earlier at the Green Mill on Dresden Ave. and had nine $20 bills and a few $1's. He was taken to the hospital by the officers for treatment..

Officers said they received a call from an unidentified woman that she had overheard a conversation between two men and one was threatening to beat the other.

BABY'S SIGHT
Q. At what age do babies recognize their parents?
A. Infants respond to familiar sounds (such as the mother's voice) quite early. However, the baby's vision remains restricted for a time. The eye of an alert newborn can focus on targets only at a particular distance (about 8 inches). Objects farther away are blurred. The ability to focus steadily improves, however, so that by the end of the fourth month the eye accommodates, or focuses, about as well as the eye of an adult.
REPIGMENTATION OF THE HAIR
Q. I was 64 years old when I developed diabetes. Shortly after starting insulin my hair, which was then quite gray, changed to the brown color it was when I was much younger. I'm not complaining but was this due to the insulin?
A. Apparently repigmentation of gray hair sometimes occurs in diabetics after good nutrition and diabetic control is established. The reason for it is unknown.

BABY'S SIGHT

Q. At what age do babies recognize their parents?

A. Infants respond to familiar sounds (such as the mother's voice) quite early. However, the baby's vision remains restricted for a time. The eye of an alert newborn can focus on targets only at a particular distance (about 8 inches). Objects farther away are blurred. The ability to focus steadily improves, however, so that by the end of the fourth month the eye accommodates, or focuses, about as well as the eye of an adult.

REPIGMENTATION OF THE HAIR

Q. I was 64 years old when I developed diabetes. Shortly after starting insulin my hair, which was then quite gray, changed to the brown color it was when I was much younger. I'm not complaining but was this due to the insulin?

A. Apparently repigmentation of gray hair sometimes occurs in diabetics after good nutrition and diabetic control is established. The reason for it is unknown.

Naval Academy Sets Plan To Attract Top Students

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP) — The U.S. Naval Academy will use its athletic recruiting techniques and organization in a new campaign to attract top students from high schools around the country.

Plans for the academic talent search were announced today by Rear Adm. Draper L. Kauffman, academy superintendent.

He said a similar drive will be launched later this year to recruit high school students with outstanding leadership ability, such as class officers, who might not come to the academy's attention as readily as an athlete or scholar.

The program will have "our very highest priority," he said.

"We have a great thing going for us in our athletic recruiting system," said Kauffman, who became superintendent two months ago. "It has produced good student athletes with outstanding officer potential.

"Now we're going after those who can still fit our concept of the 'whole man' but whose abilities may be more pronounced in schoolarship or leadership than in athletics."

The first to be contacted will be 189 National Merit Scholar semi-finalists and other commended students who recently indicated an interest in attending the naval academy on their examination forms. These students rank among the top 2 per cent in high schools throughout the country.

Kauffman said hundreds of others with similar high standing, who expressed a preference for some other college or university also will come within the scope of the campaign "if they are the type of individual we are looking for."

"We will compete for scholars in the same manner as we do for the athlete who is also a good student," he said. "But we don't want the physically inept or the boy who has no leadership capabilities."

The superintendent last weekend sent a personal letter and package of information to each of the merit scholarship semifinalists who expressed an interest in the academy.

A personal visit from a naval academy representative is to follow.

Utilized in the program will be an organization of some 300 "Bird Dogs" — volunteer talent scouts who make up Navy's nationwide athletic recruiting system — and some 250 "Blue and Gold" officers, trained Naval Reservists who serve as academy information officers in their home naval districts.

Riot

tinued talking to the rioters, Smith said.

The scene of the rioting is a normally quiet area deep in the heart of what civil rights leaders have referred to as the "black ghetto."

An outburst Wednesday night, when a white officer arrested a Negro on a drunken driving charge, touched off an eight-hour demonstration with heavy damage and more than a score of injuries.

After daylong calm Thursday, knots of youths and young men formed at sundown along Avalon Boulevard in suburban Watts. Two shoeshine boys, in pale mimicry of the previous night's brick tossing and board swiging, began chucking pebbles at passing cars.

Crowds that were virtually 100 per cent Negro poured out of homes, apartments and shops and were joined by others from outside the area. They jammed sidewalks and overflowed into the street, blocking traffic.

Mrs. Ralph Gray, honorary vice president, gave grace at noon.

Available literature was displayed by Mrs. Walter Dinger, secretary of program materials.

At the afternoon session, the district program committee presented a skit, "The Program Box."

A large birthday cake was used to illustrate the talk on "The Twenty - Fifth Anniversary" by Mrs. James Carter of Bergholz, who discussed the group's observance of that many years of service. She substituted for Mrs. Lewis Call, secretary of membership cultivation, who was ill.

An audience evaluation followed the presentation of Mrs. Alma Elliott on a program from the studybook entitled "Living In a Space Age."

Mrs. S. C. Bye of East Palestine, treasurer, gave the financial report.

Mrs. Chalmer Morris, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Lower, sang "I'll Walk With Thee." The meditation upon the spiritual life study "Acts: Then and Now" and the closing worship service were conducted by Mrs. Gary Snode of Minerva.

Sinatra Salt Water Odyssey Appears To Be At End Today

NEW YORK (AP) — Frank Sinatra's salt water odyssey appeared at an end today, leaving unanswered where he would take his romance with teen-aged television star Mia Farrow.

The singer and Miss Farrow left his chartered yacht Thursday apparently for opposite shores of the Hudson River.

Sinatra, 49, reportedly took a launch from the Southern Breeze and headed for New Jersey. It was speculated he was going to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Sinatra, who live at Fort Lee, N.J.

Miss Farrow, 19, came to Manhattan, where she met her mother, actress Maureen O'Sullivan, and her sister, Tisa, 14.

With its passengers scattered ashore, the Southern Breeze slipped down the Hudson Thursday night to the East River and returned to her berth at the World's Fair Marina.

The cruise had started as a meandering pleasure trip along the East Coast. But at every stop there were rumors that Sinatra and Miss Farrow had married. The rumors were, at times, denied or ignored.

Then a third mate aboard the yacht, Robert A. Goldfarb, drowned Tuesday at Vineyard Harbor, Mass., when a small boat capsized.

The cruise also was marked by an erroneous report that Mrs. John F. Kennedy, widow of the president, had boarded the Yacht off Hyannis Port for a visit.

Senior Citizens Group Sets Plan For County Fair Visit

A letter was read from headquarters in Washington, D. C., relative to the passing of the medicare bill and the group was asked to observe the occasion with a social event. A committee will be appointed to make plans for a special dinner.

Rudy Halpate has donated the use of the Halpate Building in East End for members to sponsor a rummage sale in September.

Mrs. Lillian Allen, who observed her 85th birthday, was recognized and presented a corsage as queen for the day.

Mrs. Grace McHenry and Mrs. Bessie White were present after being absent for some time because of illness.

Lunch was served to 178, including visitors from Chicago, Midland and Wellsville. Mrs. Eunice Hogenfeld and committee were in charge of the lunch. Jack Barrett, president, presided.

The next meeting will be Thursday afternoon.

tinued talking to the rioters, Smith said.

The scene of the rioting is a normally quiet area deep in the heart of what civil rights leaders have referred to as the "black ghetto."

An outburst Wednesday night, when a white officer arrested a Negro on a drunken driving charge, touched off an eight-hour demonstration with heavy damage and more than a score of injuries.

After daylong calm Thursday, knots of youths and young men formed at sundown along Avalon Boulevard in suburban Watts. Two shoeshine boys, in pale mimicry of the previous night's brick tossing and board swiging, began chucking pebbles at passing cars.

Crowds that were virtually 100 per cent Negro poured out of homes, apartments and shops and were joined by others from outside the area. They jammed sidewalks and overflowed into the street, blocking traffic.

Youth Faces Hearing Over Faulty Check

A 20-year-old Cannons Mills youth was arraigned today in Municipal Court on a charge of forging a $40 check and cashing it at a service station, which police said was one of a series of bad checks that he allegedly passed in the last two weeks.

A hearing for Rodney Gilkinson on an affidavit filed by Mrs. Gladys Roberts of Roberts Sunoco Service on Route 30 at Sub-Station was continued until Tuesday by Judge Samuel M. Chertoff to allow the defendant time to retain counsel. Gilkinson's bond was set at $1,000.

Advising him to retain counsel, Judge Chertoff explained the forgery charge is punishable by a penitentiary term if convicted.

The affidavit alleges that Gilkinson on Aug. 6 forged a check drawn on the Potters Bank & Trust Co. for $40 and purportedly signed by Kay Gilkinson. She was identified by police as the defendant's mother.

The check was cashed at Roberts' station along with three other $30 checks dated Aug. 2, 4 and 5, authorities said. All four checks were attached to the affidavit, although Gilkinson was charged only with cashing one.

Gilkinson was taken into custody Tuesday night in the Diamond by Patrolman Charles A. Winters, who was off duty, and Lt. C. E. (Bill) Tice after Winters and Chief Americo Radeschi spent virtually all day yesterday looking for the defendant.

Returning downtown about 6 last night, Winters spotted Gilkinson and summoned Tice and the arrest was made on a warrant.

New 'Plan For Progress' Listed At BPW Meeting

During the business meeting which followed the group's annual picnic Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Helen Bibbee, the East Liverpool Business & Professional Women's Club adopted its 1965-66 program.

Prsented by Mrs. Mary Ruth Bebout, first vice president and program chairman, and based on the theme "A Plan For Progress," the program will be developed through meetings and projects by three committee—Personal Development, Civic Participation and World Affairs.

"Within these areas are three subjects of vital importance and interest to business and professional women", Mrs. Bebout said. "Youth" — the most valuable resource of our nation and community. "Education" — the key to our progress in this space age. And "Service" — the helping hand in our modern society. These three areas of interest will be stressed in the work of our club throughout the coming year."

She pointed out, too, that "the initials of these three subjects, Youth, Education and Service, form the word "Yes" and called for the fullest participation on the part of the individual members.

"Through our youth and education projects, especially our award - winning NIKE Club of the East Liverpool High School," she continued, "we must challenge women, both the young and not so young, to train now for the changes in methods, modes and attitudes of today's society. We know, too, that we serve our members best when we establish close communication with our community and its needs. Service projects are an important part of our club's overall program."

Other business discussed included the adoption of the club's annual budget, presented by Mrs. Gertrude Sixt, finance chairman; the announcement by Miss Roberta Pennybaker, chairman, that publication of a bi-monthly member bulletin will begin with an October issue, and a report by Mrs. Doris McKinnon, chairman of the NIKE Club advisers, on coming activities. She also introduced Miss Denise Persohn, president, and Miss Sally Anderson, secretary, of the 1965-66 NIKE Club, who were guests.

Miss Joan Witt, BPW president, reviewed plans for club participation in the Oct. 10 fall meeting of District 8, of which the local unit is a part. She announced, too, that the club's Board of Directors will meet Aug. 21 at 7:30 p. m. in the Review's conference room.

Mrs. Betty Reed, personal development chairman, announced a meeting of that committee for next Tuesday at 7 p.m. in the Travelers Hotel.

The club's opening fall dinner meeting is scheduled for Sept. 8 at the hotel. The Civic Participation Committee, with Miss Karole Kapp, chairman, is arranging the program.

USW Claims Talks Bring 'No Action'

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The United Steelworkers union says there has been "endless discussion" with the basic steel industry on a new contract, "but little or no action."

An editorial in the union's monthly publication "Steel Labor accuses the industry of risking a "shutdown of steel production rather than consider realistically the urgent, critical needs of steelworkers."

The publication went to press several days ago, but a union spokesman said yesterday the comments still held good.

This was the first clear indication that current top - level contract talks are deadlocked. The talks are being held in an undisclosed location.

The industry had no official comment on the remarks in "Steel Labor." But a spokesman said the union "has no one to thank but itself."

Cyclist Injured At East Palestine

EAST PALESTINE — Delbert W. Kunkel, 39, of the Negley-New Waterford Rd. was injured when his motorcycle overturned on Bacon Ave. at Brookdale Ave. Thursday night at 9:50.

Kunkel was en route home from the Goodyear Store in East Liverpool when the mishap occurred.

He told police he flipped the cycle in order to avoid colliding with a car operated by Mrs. Virginia Sorrell, 30, of 378 N. Sumner St., who had turned from Brookdale onto Bacon Ave.

Kunkel was treated at Salem City Hospital for a puncture wound of the left leg and hand and back injuries.

Repairs Set Tonight At Beaver Facilities

The main power supply will be shut off to the Beaver County Home and Hospital tonight at 6 for about 14 hours to permit major repairs at a cost of $3,000 to the power lines running to the boiler plant, which were struck by lightning last Friday.

Beaver County commissioners authorized the action following a recent meeting with insurance representatives for the hospital.

New Program To Begin For Parcel Post Service

A new "Scheduled Service" system which provides overnight delivery of ZIP-coded parcel post five days a week between some 800 offices centered in and around Pittsburgh, overlapping into West Virginia and Ohio and covering more than 24,000 square miles, was announced today by area postmasters.

Principal cities in the area are Pittsburgh, Somerset, Indiana, Johnstown and Butler in Pennsylvania; Wheeling and Morgantown in West Virginia, and Steubenville, Youngstown and East Liverpool in Ohio. Some 4½ million people will be served by the new program.

Edward M. Kriz, special assistant to the postmaster general, discussed details of the plan during a recent press conference at Pittsburgh, followed by a meeting of postmasters.

Kriz emphasized that the success of the program depends to a large extent on precision timing in the transferring of bulk mails at major cities throughout the Pittsburgh area. "The Pittsburgh system forms a nucleus for an eventual nationwide tie-in of scheduled service areas which will result in dependable scheduled delivery for parcel post from coast - to coast," he stated.

Extensive testing has assured the success of the program, which in effect offers "first-rate service" for fourth - class mail, according to the postmasters.

Mailing deadline for the service will be 4:45 p. m.

"The Post Office Department has found through extensive study," the announcement said, "that one of the major problems of the parcel post service has been the lack of dependability of delivery. For many mailers, it is often more important to know when a parcel is going to be delivered than it is just to get it there in a hurry." For these reasons, the Post Office Department developed the concept of "Scheduled Service."

In the "Scheduled Service" area, ZIP-coded parcels will be transported to the destination post office overnight and will be delivered to the addressee on the next day of scheduled parcel delivery.

In most cases, this should mean next-day parcel service, it was explained, because parcel post deliveries are made five days out of the week. These parcels must bear the ZIP codes to get the best service, it was emphasized.

Gale Poses Hazard For Ohioan On Boat

FALMOUTH, England (AP) —A gale swept up from the southeast off the Cornish Coast today, providing perhaps the biggest hazard Robert Manry has encountered in his attempt to sail alone from the United States to England in a 13½ foot boat.

Manry, 48, Cleveland newspaperman, was last seen Monday noon about 280 miles out from this port. Weather experts here calculated he must now be directly in the path of the storm.

Falmouth sailors, speaking from years of tradition and knowledge, said they believed his boat, the Tinkerbelle, was weathering the blow but not getting very far.

suggested a very dangerous policy for our country."

In the text of his speech, Rivers said "even if we win the war in South Viet Nam, I cannot help but think that we are merely postponing the final victory of Red China — unless the nation is prepared to risk the possible consequences of destroying her nuclear capability.

"And unless we make that decision, it is possible that all of our fighting in South Viet Nam will have been in vain."

Further, he said the United States was pouring so many planes into Viet Nam "the air fields can't hold any more.

"But what will they be used for — or against? If we want victory — we must be prepared for the risks associated with the effort."

Rivers said in the interview he didn't know what the fuss was about. "I've been saying that all along," he added.

Other business discussed included the adoption of the club's annual budget, presented by Mrs. Gertrude Sixt, finance chairman; the announcement by Miss Roberta Pennybaker, chairman, that publication of a bi-monthly member bulletin will begin with an October issue, and a report by Mrs. Doris McKinnon, chairman of the NIKE Club advisers, on coming activities. She also introduced Miss Denise Persohn, president, and Miss Sally Anderson, secretary, of the 1965-66 NIKE Club, who were guests.

Miss Joan Witt, BPW president, reviewed plans for club participation in the Oct. 10 fall meeting of District 8, of which the local unit is a part. She announced, too, that the club's Board of Directors will meet Aug. 21 at 7:30 p. m. in the Review's conference room.

Mrs. Betty Reed, personal development chairman, announced a meeting of that committee for next Tuesday at 7 p.m. in the Travelers Hotel.

The club's opening fall dinner meeting is scheduled for Sept. 8 at the hotel. The Civic Participation Committee, with Miss Karole Kapp, chairman, is arranging the program.

A hearing for a city motorcyclist was continued today until Tuesday in Municipal Court after he pleaded innocent to a speeding charge filed by the State Highway Patrol.

USW Claims Talks Bring 'No Action'

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The United Steelworkers union says there has been "endless discussion" with the basic steel industry on a new contract, "but little or no action."

An editorial in the union's monthly publication "Steel Labor accuses the industry of risking a "shutdown of steel production rather than consider realistically the urgent, critical needs of steelworkers."

The publication went to press several days ago, but a union spokesman said yesterday the comments still held good.

This was the first clear indication that current top - level contract talks are deadlocked. The talks are being held in an undisclosed location.

The industry had no official comment on the remarks in "Steel Labor." But a spokesman said the union "has no one to thank but itself."

Cyclist Injured At East Palestine

EAST PALESTINE — Delbert W. Kunkel, 39, of the Negley-New Waterford Rd. was injured when his motorcycle overturned on Bacon Ave. at Brookdale Ave. Thursday night at 9:50.

Kunkel was en route home from the Goodyear Store in East Liverpool when the mishap occurred.

He told police he flipped the cycle in order to avoid colliding with a car operated by Mrs. Virginia Sorrell, 30, of 378 N. Sumner St., who had turned from Brookdale onto Bacon Ave.

Repairs Set Tonight At Beaver Facilities

The main power supply will be shut off to the Beaver County Home and Hospital tonight at 6 for about 14 hours to permit major repairs at a cost of $3,000 to the power lines running to the boiler plant, which were struck by lightning last Friday.

New Program To Begin For Parcel Post Service

A new "Scheduled Service" system which provides overnight delivery of ZIP-coded parcel post five days a week between some 800 offices centered in and around Pittsburgh, overlapping into West Virginia and Ohio and covering more than 24,000 square miles, was announced today by area postmasters.

Principal cities in the area are Pittsburgh, Somerset, Indiana, Johnstown and Butler in Pennsylvania; Wheeling and Morgantown in West Virginia, and Steubenville, Youngstown and East Liverpool in Ohio. Some 4½ million people will be served by the new program.

Edward M. Kriz, special assistant to the postmaster general, discussed details of the plan during a recent press conference at Pittsburgh, followed by a meeting of postmasters.

Kriz emphasized that the success of the program depends to a large extent on precision timing in the transferring of bulk mails at major cities throughout the Pittsburgh area. "The Pittsburgh system forms a nucleus for an eventual nationwide tie-in of scheduled service areas which will result in dependable scheduled delivery for parcel post from coast - to coast," he stated.

Extensive testing has assured the success of the program, which in effect offers "first-rate service" for fourth - class mail, according to the postmasters.

Mailing deadline for the service will be 4:45 p. m.

"The Post Office Department has found through extensive study," the announcement said, "that one of the major problems of the parcel post service has been the lack of dependability of delivery. For many mailers, it is often more important to know when a parcel is going to be delivered than it is just to get it there in a hurry." For these reasons, the Post Office Department developed the concept of "Scheduled Service."

In the "Scheduled Service" area, ZIP-coded parcels will be transported to the destination post office overnight and will be delivered to the addressee on the next day of scheduled parcel delivery.

In most cases, this should mean next-day parcel service, it was explained, because parcel post deliveries are made five days out of the week. These parcels must bear the ZIP codes to get the best service, it was emphasized.

Gale Poses Hazard For Ohioan On Boat

FALMOUTH, England (AP) —A gale swept up from the southeast off the Cornish Coast today, providing perhaps the biggest hazard Robert Manry has encountered in his attempt to sail alone from the United States to England in a 13½ foot boat.

Manry, 48, Cleveland newspaperman, was last seen Monday noon about 280 miles out from this port. Weather experts here calculated he must now be directly in the path of the storm.

Falmouth sailors, speaking from years of tradition and knowledge, said they believed his boat, the Tinkerbelle, was weathering the blow but not getting very far.

The human body contains 639 different muscles. The only parts of the body which do not have muscles are the knuckles and the shin bones.

suggested a very dangerous policy for our country."

In the text of his speech, Rivers said "even if we win the war in South Viet Nam, I cannot help but think that we are merely postponing the final victory of Red China — unless the nation is prepared to risk the possible consequences of destroying her nuclear capability.

"And unless we make that decision, it is possible that all of our fighting in South Viet Nam will have been in vain."

Further, he said the United States was pouring so many planes into Viet Nam "the air fields can't hold any more.

"But what will they be used for — or against? If we want victory — we must be prepared for the risks associated with the effort."

Rivers said in the interview he didn't know what the fuss was about. "I've been saying that all along," he added.

Dear Folks: For those of you who have burned your composition drainboards, and can't afford a new one (had we known what they cost in the first place, perhaps we wouldn't have put down that hot pan, eh?) . . .

Why not go to your local lumber yard and buy a little 12-inch square of the composition material to lay on your drainboard? It is real inexpensive, because you will be asking for "scrap" stuff. This little goodie can be tacked on a little square of scrap plywood and you'll have the grandest cutting board ever.

Bet you won't pay over 20 cents for it, as some lumber yards are glad to get rid of it!

This is a wonderful thingumajig to have in your kitchen, even if you don't have a plastic drainboard.

Use it to cut vegetables on, make sandwiches on, and, yes, even turn it over to put your hot pan on when you mash those taters!

Next time you go to the cleaners or the grocery store, and come to that lumber yard . . . STOP!

That 20 cents or so you spend will prevent many frayed nerves for months to come, plus, perhaps, a damaged drain board.

LETTER OF LAUGHTER

DEAR HELOISE: Last summer we had dandelions blooming in our front yard.

If I cut them, all the fuzz (which is seeds) blew all over the yard.

I took my vacuum cleaner into the yard and sucked up all the fuzz. It worked — even though the neighbors might have called the "men-in-the-white-coats" to come after me.

ROSIE THE RIVETER.

DEAR HELOISE: For the home movie fans:

Don't discard the 25-ft. plastic reels that are left after splicing your films onto a larger reel.

They are wonderful for winding left-over bias tape, ribbon, crochet cotton, embroidery thread, etc.

The end of the tape can be pulled through a notch on the reel after winding, and it will not come undone.

This will make for a neater sewing basket.

MRS. RALPH CARLSON.

DEAR HELOISE: What do you do for a zipper that just will not go up and down? It gets stuck every time just like it has glue on it!

RUTH.

DEAR RUTH: If the garment is dark, try taking a lead pencil and rubbing up and down on the zipper, then zipping it three or four times. It's the graphite, you know!

If the clothing is white, I suggest you take a dab of old white wax candle and try that.

Both work. I've tried 'em.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Has anyone, other than myelf, ever thought of the idea of turning a can of soup, vegetables (or anything that might settle to the bottom of the can), upside down before opening with a can opener?

It's so much easier to have the contents pour out instead of having to scrape around in the bottom of the can to get the last bean or all of the soup from the bottom.

CHARDON, Ohio (AP)—Contempt of court charges have been filed against Geauga County Sheriff Louis A. Robusky for alleged misuse of prisoners in violation of jail rules.

Hofstetter, a Republican, also charged that the Democratic sheriff used prisoners to care for horses on a private farm and repair fences and corrals.

Hofstetter's petition includes 11 specific charges. Common Pleas Court judges have published specific jail rules in court records.

Two of four charges brought by the grand jury last year against Robusky and his wife are still pending. Two were dismissed.

Bringing Up A Family

By Dr. GARRY MYERS

Child Should Be Prepared For School

Entering the first grade is a big adventure for any child and the more so if he has not attended kindergarten. Most children eagerly look forward to this new experience. They have watched older children go to school and thought of this as a mark of growing up. A few children, however, have misgivings and anxiety about their first day in the grades.

Dr. Garry Myers

They may have been teased by older children who have enjoyed feelings of superiority by filling them with all sorts of fears of the teacher, and of school bullies, mostly fabricated.

A few parents, when unable to get obedience in their child, have told him he "will have to mind when he goes to school," suggesting he will have a stern and severe teacher.

IF YOUR child, looking forward to the first grade, reveals any fear or anxiety about the experience to you, you might, even during the remaining weeks, do a great deal to fill his mind and heart with hopefulness.

You, of course, will not let yourself utter a single remark suggesting that he won't like his teacher or any of the classmates at school.

On the contrary, you will often tell him of the kind and good ways of his teacher, of the exciting experiences he will have at school and of the many new friends he will have.

You will try, if possible, to have him meet with some who will be his classmates, especially those who are happily looking forward to the first day in school.

Among his older playmates in the neighborhood, you will try to ingratiate yourself. You will take into your confidence a few of them you think you can win to help you build in your child a healthy attitude toward entering school.

IN CASE you knew that one or more older children had been filling your child with fears about school, you might through a few other older children find ways to counter the ill effect.

As your child will be introduced to reading and other learning skills you might, in the remaining weeks, do much in his preparation. Go on reading to him every day. If he asks you to say a certain word on the page, gladly do so. Answer all his questions kindly.

Cultivate companionable conversation with your child. Call his attention to words on signs on the street and in stories and labels on food packages. Encourage him to draw or paint pictures he likes to create, and to make things for fun out of paper, cardboard and clay.

Do your best to help him have fun with other children near his age. Attract them to your home where you can study him and help him to be a good playmate.

IT MAY help him greatly if you sometimes read to all the children when playmates are present and to practice them all in following directions in non-running games.

Check on how well you have educated your child in routines, conforming to family regulations, reasonable obedience and consdieration of the rights of others; in enjoyment of food, in good habits of sleep, safety, elimination and general cleanliness.

Observe how well you have guided him to wait on himself and take responsibility for his own things.

Kiwanians View Film On Communist Threat

An appeal for Americans to safeguard their individual rights and the nation's standards of liberty against encroachments of communism was the theme of a film and tape recording at a meeting of the Kiwanis Club Thursday.

Jim Ferguson of the Elks Club presented the 25-minute slide program, which described the foundation of a democracy in the United States and the threat to it from communism and socialism.

Ferguson was introduced by Alex Kidd president.

DEAR HELOISE: Last summer we had dandelions blooming in our front yard.

If I cut them, all the fuzz (which is seeds) blew all over the yard.

I took my vacuum cleaner into the yard and sucked up all the fuzz. It worked — even though the neighbors might have called the "men-in-the-white-coats" to come after me.

ROSIE THE RIVETER.

DEAR HELOISE: For the home movie fans:

Don't discard the 25-ft. plastic reels that are left after splicing your films onto a larger reel.

They are wonderful for winding left-over bias tape, ribbon, crochet cotton, embroidery thread, etc.

The end of the tape can be pulled through a notch on the reel after winding, and it will not come undone.

This will make for a neater sewing basket.

MRS. RALPH CARLSON.

DEAR HELOISE: What do you do for a zipper that just will not go up and down? It gets stuck every time just like it has glue on it!

RUTH.

DEAR RUTH: If the garment is dark, try taking a lead pencil and rubbing up and down on the zipper, then zipping it three or four times. It's the graphite, you know!

If the clothing is white, I suggest you take a dab of old white wax candle and try that.

Both work. I've tried 'em.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Has anyone, other than myelf, ever thought of the idea of turning a can of soup, vegetables (or anything that might settle to the bottom of the can), upside down before opening with a can opener?

It's so much easier to have the contents pour out instead of having to scrape around in the bottom of the can to get the last bean or all of the soup from the bottom.

Bringing Up A Family

By Dr. GARRY MYERS

Child Should Be Prepared For School

Entering the first grade is a big adventure for any child and the more so if he has not attended kindergarten. Most children eagerly look forward to this new experience. They have watched older children go to school and thought of this as a mark of growing up. A few children, however, have misgivings and anxiety about their first day in the grades.

Dr. Garry Myers

They may have been teased by older children who have enjoyed feelings of superiority by filling them with all sorts of fears of the teacher, and of school bullies, mostly fabricated.

A few parents, when unable to get obedience in their child, have told him he "will have to mind when he goes to school," suggesting he will have a stern and severe teacher.

IF YOUR child, looking forward to the first grade, reveals any fear or anxiety about the experience to you, you might, even during the remaining weeks, do a great deal to fill his mind and heart with hopefulness.

You, of course, will not let yourself utter a single remark suggesting that he won't like his teacher or any of the classmates at school.

On the contrary, you will often tell him of the kind and good ways of his teacher, of the exciting experiences he will have at school and of the many new friends he will have.

You will try, if possible, to have him meet with some who will be his classmates, especially those who are happily looking forward to the first day in school.

Among his older playmates in the neighborhood, you will try to ingratiate yourself. You will take into your confidence a few of them you think you can win to help you build in your child a healthy attitude toward entering school.

IN CASE you knew that one or more older children had been filling your child with fears about school, you might through a few other older children find ways to counter the ill effect.

As your child will be introduced to reading and other learning skills you might, in the remaining weeks, do much in his preparation. Go on reading to him every day. If he asks you to say a certain word on the page, gladly do so. Answer all his questions kindly.

Cultivate companionable conversation with your child. Call his attention to words on signs on the street and in stories and labels on food packages. Encourage him to draw or paint pictures he likes to create, and to make things for fun out of paper, cardboard and clay.

Do your best to help him have fun with other children near his age. Attract them to your home where you can study him and help him to be a good playmate.

IT MAY help him greatly if you sometimes read to all the children when playmates are present and to practice them all in following directions in non-running games.

Check on how well you have educated your child in routines, conforming to family regulations, reasonable obedience and consdieration of the rights of others; in enjoyment of food, in good habits of sleep, safety, elimination and general cleanliness.

Observe how well you have guided him to wait on himself and take responsibility for his own things.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Our daughter who soon will be 11 years old reads your column every day. I have no objections, in fact I think it is good for her because you have backed me up many times. My husband doesn't agree with me. He says Enid will discover soon enough that life can be sordid and terribly cruel. He doesn't think she should find out through your column.

Last night we talked about this again after he heard Enid discussing your column on the telephone with a girl friend. My husband said kids are exposed to so much that is undesirable and so little that is good that they are bound to become confused. He insists childhood should be just plain fun, free of anxieties and worries.

My husband is well-educated (which I am not) and I must admit he seldom is wrong. your reply. — MRS. DON'T KNOW.

Dear Mrs.: Your husband may be well-educated but he has a poor memory. Nobody's childhood is "just plain fun, free of anxieties and worries" —not even your husband's.

I believe my column is fit reading for anyone who is old enough to read. If some of the material is beyond a youngster, it will have no meaning. If pre-teens do understand it, all the better. My advice is based on sound moral principles, and correct information —and this can't hurt anybody.

Robber Bourbon

Dear Ann: Several months ago you wrote a wonderful column on parents who fight in front of their children. Now I wish you'd say something about parents who get drunk in front of their children.

I'm a boy 15 years old who would like to take a hammer and bust every bottle of liquor in this house. My mother inherited quite a lot of money so nobody in the family works. Anyone who thinks a life of leisure is a great way to live should come to our house and they'd learn something.

By dinner time my mother and dad are both smashed. All they do is fight. My brother and sister and I eat in the kitchen with the help because we can't stand the name-calling and the plate-throwing.

Liquor has robbed my mother of her looks and her health. It has robbed my father of his ambition and his dignity. It has robbed them both of the respect of their children. But it has done one thing that is good. It has helped me make a decision that some teen-agers struggle with for a long time. I'll never touch liquor as long as I live. — MADE THE SCENE.

Dear M.T.S.: Your decision is a wise one. You'll never have to worry about whether or not you're in shape to drive or wrack your brain to remember what you said or did the night before. And you won't be bothered with hangovers or the shakes.

Recent figures by the experts tell us that every day approximately 1,000 Americans cross the line that divides the social drinker and the alcoholics. It's nice to know you won't be among them, son.

Lucky Date For Kentucky Couple

MAYSVILLE, Ky. (AP) — It's Friday the 13th, a lucky date for Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bisotti. They were married Aug. 13, 1913, had 13 children and 13 grandchildren.

Although Mrs. Bisotti says they have "nothing special planned," they celebrate their 52nd wedding anniversary today.

Things started coming up in 13s for the childhood sweethearts when they were married in La Follette, Tenn.

"I must have been about five at the time my family came from northern Italy to America," recalls Mrs. Bisotti, 65.

Bisotti, 69, came from Italy in his early teens and worked in Kentucky coal mines.

On their wedding day, Mrs. Bisotti said she thought she was 18. But a birth certificate obtained from Italy many years later showed she was 13.

They had nine sons and four daughters, and 13 grandchildren.

The Bisottis moved to Kenosha, Wis., and lived there 15 years, before returning to Kentucky, on Feb. 13, this year when four sons bought a restaurant in Aberdeen, Ohio, across the Ohio River from Maysville.

Geno, 39; Valentino, 37; Deno, 33, and Albert, 31, own the restaurant. Vasilio, 49, Della, 25, and Virgil, 19, also work there. John, 47, works in Cincinnati, 65 miles northwest of Maysville.

Three Bisottis — Reatha, 51; Frank, 35, and Catherine, 26 — live in the Kenosha, Wis., area. Louis and Mary are dead.

The Bisottis said they never have been superstitious about the number 13.

"Perhaps that's why we've had nothing but good luck with it," Mrs. Bisotti said.

Copters Land Marines For Night Attack In Viet

NAM YEN, South Viet Nam (AP) — Under the light of a full moon and aerial flares, a fleet of helicopters landed U.S Marines in Elephant Valley for another search for Viet Cong guerrillas.

The Marines said it was the first large-scale night helicopter assault in history.

The choppers flew through a mountain pass at midnight to Nam Yen, a village 12 miles northwest of the Da Nang Air Base. As many as 500 hard-core Viet Cong sometimes operate in the area.

Several bursts of fire sent tracer bullets through the night as the Marines made light contact with a small Viet Cong force. One dead guerrilla was found at dawn. About 20 prisoners ware taken. The operation continued.

Minutes after midnight, a company of Marines landed at each of two villages straddling the Ca De River. The Marines' faces were blackened with a wax-base camouflage makeup that turned to a sickly gray-green by morning.

Flares were dropped for a only a few minutes — just long enough for the helicopters to unload and move out again.

Lt. Col. David Clemente of Jacksonville, N.C., commander of the 2nd Battalion, 3rd Marines, organized the operation after an enemy document was captured. It warned the Viet Cong fighters to clear out of villages before dawn because "the Marines always attack after first light."

Col. Clement said the idea for "Operation Midnight" came from his operations officer, Maj. Marc Moore of Dallas, Tex.

The night attack, if adopted as a tactic in the Viet Nam war, opens a number of possibilities for Vietnamese and American troops, Marine officers say.

They say large forces could be moved in around known Viet Cong villages at night, then set ambushes to catch guerrillas attempting to slip out before a thorough search at dawn.

Attacking troops also could be landed at night for a forced march for an early morning attack against a village some distance from the landing zone.

Viet Cong observation posts on hilltops now can spot troop movements during the day. Communist troops then can either move out of the way or set up ambush positions.

They say large forces could be moved in around known Viet Cong villages at night, then set ambushes to catch guerrillas attempting to slip out before a thorough search at dawn.

Attacking troops also could be landed at night for a forced march for an early morning attack against a village some distance from the landing zone.

Viet Cong observation posts on hilltops now can spot troop movements during the day. Communist troops then can either move out of the way or set up ambush positions.

Marlyn Gets Choice Of Diseases

A guest star checking into Ben Casey's Metropolitan General Hospital can't always be sure what ailment he or she will have or how long it will last. Pert, attractive Marlyn Mason came to realize this after signing up as a patient for the first five episodes scheduled to premiere Ben's fifth TV season in September.

Hal Humphrey

"I've already finished filming them," said Marlyn this week, "but it turned out to be seven episodes and I still don't know what I had."

-:-

IN THE OPENING chapter of the saga of Marlyn, she is a folk singer engaged to Jim McMullan, a new doctor in the series, who brings her to Metropolitan General to treat what seems to be a virus.

"When I received the second script I discovered the virus was only something which 'masked a more serious problem,' as they put it, and that ultimately I would go crazy," reported Marlyn.

"Naturally I asked what it was that would drive me crazy, and they said they weren't sure yet, but maybe Parkinson's disease. So I studied up on it and had to tell them next day that Parkinson's doesn't affect the brain."

AUTHENTICITY being paramount in a medical series, it was decided to turn Marlyn into a schizophrenic, but she threw herself into that state with such gusto the director felt it necessary to switch the diagnosis again.

"I think it was in the fourth or fifth episode I suddenly had encephalitis; then someone pointed out this was an incurable disease which they don't like to do because too many viewers begin comparing their own symptons with the patient's. Anyway, that wonderful actress, Ann Harding, also was in this one and dying of cancer," Marlyn recalled.

In desperation, and probably to free themselves of Marlyn's persistence in sticking with the book where pathology was concerned, the experts on Ben Casey again changed the name of her disease, something that medical science hadn't even heard of yet—Von Demo's.

"I NEVER KNEW what it was, but they invented it," she said. "In the seventh episode I'm being wheeled away to an institution for the insane yelling, 'Don't let them take me away!' Casey is watching and says, 'This is probably her last lucid moment.'"

Throughout the seven continuing episodes Marlyn said she had several lucid moments. She sings at least one song in each (she's a folk singer, remember?), and there is also a scene in which she tries to seduce Stephen McNally, who plays the father of the other patient in her room.

Casey, besides trying to keep Maryln's ailment categorized correctly, also is busy fighting off a lawsuit another patient hits him with.

IF ALL THIS begins to smell heavily of soap opera Peyton Place style, your nose hasn't deceived you. According to Marlyn, however, the continuing case-type drama will be dropped from Casey after these first seven episodes.

No one will say so, but the idea for the serialized segments may have been prompted by NBC's Dr. Kildare series' going to a twice-a-week half-hour format.

James Mason (no relation to Marlyn) is doing four Kildares as a brilliant surgeon accused by Kildare of malpractice after a woman whom Mason operates on loses her life. Later he is in an accident which paralyzes him from the waist down.

Fortunately, CBS is dropping its "Docotrs and Nurses" series from next season's schedule, or we might have been anesthetized with these etherized elongated medical cases.

And if Marlyn Mason is smart, she'll go back to singing and dancing — which she does very well.

Barge Role Cited In Clay Shipping For Area Potters

The increasingly important role of barge shipment of ball clay into the East Liverpool district was described at a meeting of district ceramic firm officials Wednesday at the Travelers Hotel.

The transportation seminar was conducted by the Bell Operations of Chester and drew representatives from as far as New Castle and Derry, Pa.

Richard Bell, president of the firm, said some 2,000 tons of ball clay are moving into the area by way of barge.

Bell said barge shipments helped avert closing of some pottery firms in the fall of 1964 when a railroad car shortage cut into incoming raw material shipments.

"In addition, the barge movement has forced railroads to look again at the inequitable freight rate which was higher than the cost of the raw material transported," he said.

He said a rail freight reduction resulted in May, but only for one year and with certain stipulations which will not help cope with the annual car shortages.

Bell said barge shipment rates decrease as tonnage increases and means savings for users. Guests visited the Parsons Coal Co. dock, where a Bell Clay Co. barge from Tennessee was being unloaded for delivery to area plants.

Drivers Cited By Patrolmen

A 70-year-old district man was cited after a two-car collision on the Smiths Ferry-Calcutta Rd. Thursday afternoon and a Sunbury (Ohio) driver was arrested after a hillcrest collision on Route 518 near Gavers.

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon said Elmer Skelton Sr., 70, of R.D. 3 was headed west in a 1964 sedan yesterday at 4 p.m. and made a left turn toward Park Way Ext. in the path of an eastbound 1957 coach operated by Bernard C. Jones, 38, of R.D. 1.

Mrs. Grace Skelton, 67, a passenger in Skelton's car, was shaken and Mrs. Grace Jones, 33, in Jones' auto suffered a cut on the right arm.

Skelton was charged with making an improper left turn.

Bill M. Leslie, 34, of Sunbury was cited for driving left of center after his car collided with another auto on Route 518, three miles east of Gavers at 1:45 p.m.

Hearing Will Be Held In Chester Accident

A Wellsville man was cited for causing a traffic accident Thursday afternoon on the overhead bridge on 1st St. in Chester.

A 1962 sedan driven by Leo Sayre, 63, of 1760 Clark Ave. crossed over the double line and struck an oncoming Chester-bound 1964 vehicle operated by Gary A. Carpenter, 25, of 318 Alley A, Chester, police said.

Chief Harold Davis, investigating officer, estimated $300 damage to each automobile as a result of the mishap, which occurred about 3:20.

Sayre is scheduled for a hearing before Mayor Harry Abrams 7 p. m. Wednesday.

Tea Company Lists Sales, Earnings Rise

YOUNGSTOWN — A further increase in sales and net earnings during the second quarter was announced today by Norman A. Stepelton, president of the National Tea Co.

Sales for this period were $523,673,157, an increase of $26,260,381, or 5.3 per cent. This increase was achieved despite a slight decrease in the number of stores in operation. There were 956 stores in operation June 19, a net reduction of 27 since last year.

Damage Set At $500 In Fire At Wellsville

Damage was estimated at $500 to the two-story frame house owned by Joe Franklin of 1801 Nevada Ave., Wellsville, as a result of a fire which broke out in an upstairs bedroom about 11:30 Thursday morning.

Tax Plea Dismissed By Court In Beaver

The Beaver County Court has dismissed company exceptions to a tax assessment ruling last January on land owned by the Duquesne Light Co. at the atomic power plant at Shippingport.

The original ruling allowed an additional 98 acres as exempt, plus the buildings, but the company filed exceptions, objecting to the assessment.

The county originally had 30 acres and buildings exempted.

The company now owns 149.36 taxable acres which are assessed at $200 per acre.

Unofficial statistics for 1964 tourist and overnight visits to Berlin indicate an overall picture of a 20 per cent increase over 1963's figures. Overnight stays in West Berlin hotels totalled 2.04 million by 690,000 guests.

IF ALL THIS begins to smell heavily of soap opera Peyton Place style, your nose hasn't deceived you. According to Marlyn, however, the continuing case-type drama will be dropped from Casey after these first seven episodes.

No one will say so, but the idea for the serialized segments may have been prompted by NBC's Dr. Kildare series' going to a twice-a-week half-hour format.

James Mason (no relation to Marlyn) is doing four Kildares as a brilliant surgeon accused by Kildare of malpractice after a woman whom Mason operates on loses her life. Later he is in an accident which paralyzes him from the waist down.

Fortunately, CBS is dropping its "Docotrs and Nurses" series from next season's schedule, or we might have been anesthetized with these etherized elongated medical cases.

And if Marlyn Mason is smart, she'll go back to singing and dancing — which she does very well.

Barge Role Cited In Clay Shipping For Area Potters

The increasingly important role of barge shipment of ball clay into the East Liverpool district was described at a meeting of district ceramic firm officials Wednesday at the Travelers Hotel.

The transportation seminar was conducted by the Bell Operations of Chester and drew representatives from as far as New Castle and Derry, Pa.

Richard Bell, president of the firm, said some 2,000 tons of ball clay are moving into the area by way of barge.

Bell said barge shipments helped avert closing of some pottery firms in the fall of 1964 when a railroad car shortage cut into incoming raw material shipments.

"In addition, the barge movement has forced railroads to look again at the inequitable freight rate which was higher than the cost of the raw material transported," he said.

He said a rail freight reduction resulted in May, but only for one year and with certain stipulations which will not help cope with the annual car shortages.

Bell said barge shipment rates decrease as tonnage increases and means savings for users. Guests visited the Parsons Coal Co. dock, where a Bell Clay Co. barge from Tennessee was being unloaded for delivery to area plants.

A 70-year-old district man was cited after a two-car collision on the Smiths Ferry-Calcutta Rd. Thursday afternoon and a Sunbury (Ohio) driver was arrested after a hillcrest collision on Route 518 near Gavers.

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon said Elmer Skelton Sr., 70, of R.D. 3 was headed west in a 1964 sedan yesterday at 4 p.m. and made a left turn toward Park Way Ext. in the path of an eastbound 1957 coach operated by Bernard C. Jones, 38, of R.D. 1.

Mrs. Grace Skelton, 67, a passenger in Skelton's car, was shaken and Mrs. Grace Jones, 33, in Jones' auto suffered a cut on the right arm.

Skelton was charged with making an improper left turn.

Bill M. Leslie, 34, of Sunbury was cited for driving left of center after his car collided with another auto on Route 518, three miles east of Gavers at 1:45 p.m.

Tax Plea Dismissed By Court In Beaver

The Beaver County Court has dismissed company exceptions to a tax assessment ruling last January on land owned by the Duquesne Light Co. at the atomic power plant at Shippingport.

The original ruling allowed an additional 98 acres as exempt, plus the buildings, but the company filed exceptions, objecting to the assessment.

The county originally had 30 acres and buildings exempted.

Finsterwald Predicts 280 . . .

Dow Finsterwald, one of the Ohioans bidding for the PGA championship, walked into the Laurel Valley clubhouse Thursday and predicted that a score of 280 would win the 47th tournament.

He might have been shooting a little high because at the time Tommy Aaron was out on the course shattering par and finally wound up as the first day leader with a five under 66.

Finsterwald, who hails from Athens, readily admitted he doesn't spend much time there anymore since he is residing in Colorado.

He turned in a score of 73 in the first round but had nothing but praise for Arnold Palmer's home course at Ligoner. "This is one of the finest layouts I have seen on the pro golf tour," Finsterwald admitted.

Finsterwald has met with much success in Pennsylvania because it was at Llanerch Country Club in Havertown where he won the 1958 version of the PGA championship. Finsterwald shot a 276 to defeat Billy Casper.

Palmer's 'Bridge Game' . . .

THE MAIN topic of conversation among the pros seated in the clubhouse was Palmer's "bridge game' or the two-stroke penalty Arnie was assessed on the first hole.

Here's what happened: Palmer pulled his second shot into the rough near the bridge crossing the hazard. He immediately called for a ruling since he apparently felt the bridge, which was later declared immovable obstruction, interferred with his swing.

Before an official reached the spot to give a ruling, marshals removed the railing from the bridge which was the interference and he played the shot to the green.

Palmer wound up with a par on the hole but PGA tournament supervisor Jack Tuthill, co-chairman of the rules committee, questioned Palmer about the situation on the sixth tee and informed him that he was in violation of the section of Rule 17-1 which states "a player shall not improve or allow to be improved, his line of play."

Arnie wound up with a one over 72 for the day as his "mighty Army" some several thousand strong tramped with him around the picturesque Laurel Valley course.

Following his round, Palmer told writers "I wasn't to unhappy with the way I played today, but I would sure hate to lose this tournament by two strokes." He accepted complete blame for the incident at the bridge.

As far as playing on his own course, Palmer said "I guess I am a little more excited than usual."

The best score Palmer ever shot at Laurel was 67.

Palmer admitted he was "surprised at so many sub-par rounds" turned in yesterday.

Pony Leaguers Bow Out . . .

THE LOCAL Pony Leaguers bowed out of the Regional tournament play Thursday night but again represented the city well on the baseball diamond.

Several Pony League officials at Freeport were quite surprised over the fact that East Liverpool only has a five-team league and the smallest number of boys in the Pittsburgh region.

Other teams have twice as many players from which to select an all-star team.

N. Pittsburgh Hurler Gives Locals 4 Hits

By BOB DUFFY
Review Sports Editor

FREEPORT, Pa. — The East Liverpool Pony Leaguers reached the end of the tournament trail when North Pittsburgh posted a 4-0 victory here Thursday night in the Regional tournament.

After losing their first game Tuesday, East Liverpool bounced back to eliminate Mon City Wednesday night but failed to come up with any hitting and righthander Jack Schoeffel set the locals down on four singles last night.

NORTH Pittsburgh, which lost to Allegheny - Kiski Wednesday, will play them tonight. Allegheny - Kiski is undefeated and a victory would wrap up the championship in the double elimination tourney.

North Pittsburgh jumped off to a fast start Thursday by scoring twice in the first inning.

Manager Dean Densmore started Paul Berhar, who after fanning the leadoff batter, was touched for three consecutive hits including two straight doubles which produced two runs.

BERHAR was lifted and Dan Cunningham, regular second baseman, came in with one out and struck out the next two batters to end the first frame.

Cunningham went on to allow two runs but only gave up two hits over the six innings while showing nine strikeouts.

EAST Liverpool failed to pose a serious threat throughout the contest as Shoeffell had his opponents pretty well under control. He fanned 10 batters and the four singles were scattered.

Bill Montgomery had two of East Liverpool's four hits as the shortstop singled sharply in the first and third innings. Berhar and Sonny Clark accounted for the other two hits.

Two-Stroke Penalty Leaves Palmer 6 Off Pace

LIGONIER, Pa. (AP) — Tommy Aaron led the field as today's second round of the Professional Golfers' Association Championship in these western Pennsylvania highlands held a distinct Dixie flavor.

But even with the drawling Georgian and fellow Southerners Mason Rudolph, Gardnar Dickinson, Sam Snead and Ray Floyd spearheading the invasion, a large measure of attention focused on the controversial mishap that stunned the ill-starred idol of Laurel Valley, Arnold Palmer.

The 28-year-old Aaron scrambled over the Laurel Valley Club's rolling 7,090 yards in 66 Thursday, a five-under-par opening round that consisted of eight birdies, three bogeys and only seven pars.

Rudolph, the steady-shooting Tennesseean, and Dickinson, rapier-thin Alabaman who is a protege of legendary Ben Hogan, stormed in among the late finishers one stroke off the pace at 67.

Meanwhile, Palmer's promising chance at a fine round was shot down by a belated ruling that cost the slumping Pennsylvania strongboy a two-stroke penalty. His second shot on the first hole wound up near a bridge, and a railing prevented a follow-through of his swing. He called for an official ruling, but before it came marshalls tore off the railing and Palmer played on.

After a par on one, a Birdie on No. 2, and three more pars Palmer was notified on the sixth tee of the penalty. He finished the day one over at 72.

A heavy morning fog delayed the first tee-offs for two hours, and forced the starting field of 167 to split — half beginning on the first hole and the others on No. 10. But a bright sun then warmed the course and the pros did much better with par than expected. Twelve bettered it, six more matched it.

The field will be cut to the low 70 and ties after today's round, with the survivors eligible for the concluding 18-hole tests Saturday and Sunday.

ARNOLD PALMER indicates his displeasure with this handrail by placing his iron on it. It was removed by Marshalls from his path on the first hole. The removal cost Palmer a penalty of two strokes. (UPI Telephoto)

North Squad Rates Slim Edge Over South Tonight

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—A potent North squad is rated a slight choice tonight to snap the South's four - game winning streak in the 20th annual Ohio high school all - star football classic.

Game director Jim Robinson predicted that more than 16,000 would fill Fawcett Stadium for the encounter.

A wide open offensive show is in prospect, however, with the lighter Rebels expected to fill the air with passes. The Yanks, who boast one of the most versatile backfield combos in recent years, figure to employ a strong running game.

The Northerners have Bob Houmard, a 220-pounder from Orrville and Pete Kalogeros, a 210-pound fullback from Canton McKinley, as their chief battering rams and Bob Gladieux of Louisville as the breakaway threat.

Should the going get tough on the ground, Bruce is expected to utilize the accurate passing arms of Bob Belden of Canton Central Catholic and Brian Dowling of Cleveland St. Ignatius.

Lewis, who brings a 38-game winning skein into the contest, has two outstanding linemen in Dave Foley, a 225-pound tackle from Cincinnati Roger Bacon, and Dave Denzin, Xenia's 230-pound guard.

Offensively, the Rebels look to fullback Buster Yannon of Steubenville Central Catholic and Bill Long, a fine passer from Dayton Stebbins.

The Southerners, who want to make it "five in 65" already have lost two from the 25-man squad, with another on the doubtful list. The Yanks are reported in good physical condition.

Girl, 14, Sets World Record In Freestyle Swim

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—A tiny teen - ager from Commerce, Calif., owned a big world record today, her second such effort in two straight National AAU Swimming and Diving Championships.

She's Patty Caretto, 14, who won the women's 1,500-meter freestyle Thursday over Olympic swimmer Sharon Finneran of Santa Clara, Calif., and both bettered the world record of 18:30.5 minutes Miss Caretto set at the women's AAU meet July 30, 1964.

Miss Caretto even stroked two extra lengths after she completed the metri mile in 18:23.7. She failed to hear a gun signalling the final 100 meters. Miss Finneran was timed in 18:29.2.

Action turned to swimming today, with completion of men's and women's springboard diving. Miss Caretto goes in the individual medley today.

In diving competition, Micki King of Ann Arbor, Mich., saved her best dive for last to win the women's three-meter crown, while Bernie Wrightson of Phoenix, Ariz., won the men's one-meter title.

Finsterwald Predicts 280 . . .

Dow Finsterwald, one of the Ohioans bidding for the PGA championship, walked into the Laurel Valley clubhouse Thursday and predicted that a score of 280 would win the 47th tournament.

He might have been shooting a little high because at the time Tommy Aaron was out on the course shattering par and finally wound up as the first day leader with a five under 66.

Finsterwald, who hails from Athens, readily admitted he doesn't spend much time there anymore since he is residing in Colorado.

He turned in a score of 73 in the first round but had nothing but praise for Arnold Palmer's home course at Ligoner. "This is one of the finest layouts I have seen on the pro golf tour," Finsterwald admitted.

Finsterwald has met with much success in Pennsylvania because it was at Llanerch Country Club in Havertown where he won the 1958 version of the PGA championship. Finsterwald shot a 276 to defeat Billy Casper.

Palmer's 'Bridge Game' . . .

THE MAIN topic of conversation among the pros seated in the clubhouse was Palmer's "bridge game' or the two-stroke penalty Arnie was assessed on the first hole.

Here's what happened: Palmer pulled his second shot into the rough near the bridge crossing the hazard. He immediately called for a ruling since he apparently felt the bridge, which was later declared immovable obstruction, interferred with his swing.

Before an official reached the spot to give a ruling, marshals removed the railing from the bridge which was the interference and he played the shot to the green.

Palmer wound up with a par on the hole but PGA tournament supervisor Jack Tuthill, co-chairman of the rules committee, questioned Palmer about the situation on the sixth tee and informed him that he was in violation of the section of Rule 17-1 which states "a player shall not improve or allow to be improved, his line of play."

Arnie wound up with a one over 72 for the day as his "mighty Army" some several thousand strong tramped with him around the picturesque Laurel Valley course.

Following his round, Palmer told writers "I wasn't to unhappy with the way I played today, but I would sure hate to lose this tournament by two strokes." He accepted complete blame for the incident at the bridge.

As far as playing on his own course, Palmer said "I guess I am a little more excited than usual."

The best score Palmer ever shot at Laurel was 67.

Pony Leaguers Bow Out . . .

THE LOCAL Pony Leaguers bowed out of the Regional tournament play Thursday night but again represented the city well on the baseball diamond.

Several Pony League officials at Freeport were quite surprised over the fact that East Liverpool only has a five-team league and the smallest number of boys in the Pittsburgh region.

Other teams have twice as many players from which to select an all-star team.

N. Pittsburgh Hurler Gives Locals 4 Hits

By BOB DUFFY

FREEPORT, Pa. — The East Liverpool Pony Leaguers reached the end of the tournament trail when North Pittsburgh posted a 4-0 victory here Thursday night in the Regional tournament.

After losing their first game Tuesday, East Liverpool bounced back to eliminate Mon City Wednesday night but failed to come up with any hitting and righthander Jack Schoeffel set the locals down on four singles last night.

NORTH Pittsburgh, which lost to Allegheny - Kiski Wednesday, will play them tonight. Allegheny - Kiski is undefeated and a victory would wrap up the championship in the double elimination tourney.

North Pittsburgh jumped off to a fast start Thursday by scoring twice in the first inning.

Manager Dean Densmore started Paul Berhar, who after fanning the leadoff batter, was touched for three consecutive hits including two straight doubles which produced two runs.

BERHAR was lifted and Dan Cunningham, regular second baseman, came in with one out and struck out the next two batters to end the first frame.

Cunningham went on to allow two runs but only gave up two hits over the six innings while showing nine strikeouts.

The Pittsburgh nine scored in the second inning on an error, walk and a single by Ray Hayduk which drove in the two runs.

EAST Liverpool failed to pose a serious threat throughout the contest as Shoeffell had his opponents pretty well under control. He fanned 10 batters and the four singles were scattered.

Bill Montgomery had two of East Liverpool's four hits as the shortstop singled sharply in the first and third innings. Berhar and Sonny Clark accounted for the other two hits.

Two-Stroke Penalty Leaves Palmer 6 Off Pace

LIGONIER, Pa. (AP) — Tommy Aaron led the field as today's second round of the Professional Golfers' Association Championship in these western Pennsylvania highlands held a distinct Dixie flavor.

But even with the drawling Georgian and fellow Southerners Mason Rudolph, Gardnar Dickinson, Sam Snead and Ray Floyd spearheading the invasion, a large measure of attention focused on the controversial mishap that stunned the ill-starred idol of Laurel Valley, Arnold Palmer.

The 28-year-old Aaron scrambled over the Laurel Valley Club's rolling 7,090 yards in 66 Thursday, a five-under-par opening round that consisted of eight birdies, three bogeys and only seven pars.

Rudolph, the steady-shooting Tennesseean, and Dickinson, rapier-thin Alabaman who is a protege of legendary Ben Hogan, stormed in among the late finishers one stroke off the pace at 67.

Meanwhile, Palmer's promising chance at a fine round was shot down by a belated ruling that cost the slumping Pennsylvania strongboy a two-stroke penalty. His second shot on the first hole wound up near a bridge, and a railing prevented a follow-through of his swing. He called for an official ruling, but before it came marshalls tore off the railing and Palmer played on.

After a par on one, a Birdie on No. 2, and three more pars Palmer was notified on the sixth tee of the penalty. He finished the day one over at 72.

A heavy morning fog delayed the first tee-offs for two hours, and forced the starting field of 167 to split — half beginning on the first hole and the others on No. 10. But a bright sun then warmed the course and the pros did much better with par than expected. Twelve bettered it, six more matched it.

Defending PGA champion Bobby Nichols and U.S. Open champion Gary Player both were well back at 74.

The field will be cut to the low 70 and ties after today's round, with the survivors eligible for the concluding 18-hole tests Saturday and Sunday.

Kralick's Two Wild Tosses Spell Trouble For Indians

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

What Jack Kralick needs most of all is two more strike zones.

The Cleveland left-hander was doing pretty well with the standard one that's located at home plate Thursday night. But when he started aiming at first base and third base, he ran into trouble.

Kralick had limited Los Angeles to six hits and was locked in a 1-1 tie going into the ninth inning. Jim Fregosi opened the inning with a walk.

When Vic Power bunted, Kralick fielded the ball and fired to first base. Only without that strike zone to aim for, Kralick's throw sailed into right field and Fregosi wound up at third and Power at second.

Lou Clinton was purposely walked, loading the bases but Bobby Knoop kayoed the strategy with a two-run single that broke the tie.

Bob Rodgers attempted to sacrifice and again Kralick grabbed the ball. This time he tried for the force at third, but there's no strike zone there either. The ball sailed into left field as Clinton and Knoop dashed home with two more runs.

Angel reliever Bob Lee, who bailed Fred Newman out of a seventh inning jam, made the four runs stand up for his seventh victory of the year. He has lost six.

Elsewhere in the American League, Minnesota whacked New York 8-2, Baltimore downed Boston 5-3 and Detroit battered Kansas City 11-1. In the National League, Philadelphia whipped Houston 7-3, St. Louis shaded Milwaukee 5-4 in 13 innings and San Francisco split a doubleheader with Pittsburgh, winning the first game 4-3 but dropping the second 5-2.

Newman retired the first 14 batters he faced but Larry Brown's single in the sixth broke the spell. The Indians knocked him out in the next inning with singles by Leon Wagner, Rocky Colavito and Max Alvis producing the run.

The Angels clipped Kralick for a third inning run on singles by Paul Schall and Newman and Jose Cardenal's sacrifice fly.

Minnesota tagged four Yankee pitchers for 14 hits and rookie Jim Merritt coasted to his second victory. Richie Rollins and Zoilo Versalles had three hits apiece and Don Mincher hit a two-run homer for the Twins.

Hector Lopez and Clete Boyer homered for New York.

Baltimore came from behind with four runs in the seventh inning to beat Boston. John Orsino's pinch single, good for two runs, was the key blow for the Orioles.

Don Demeter drove in seven runs, four of them on a grand slam homer, and Hank Aguirre pitched a four-hitter for Detroit's victory. Demeter also had a single and a triple as the Tigers pounded three Athletic pitchers for 11 hits. Bill Freehan also homered for the Tigers.

The victory was the first since July 11 for Aguirre, who had failed in five previous attempts to win his 11th game. One of the four hits off him was Rene Lachemann's eighth home run of the season.

Pirates Split At Frisco

Shannon Delivers In New Role As Cardinals' Catcher

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Since Mike Shannon was yanked out of the St. Louis outfield last Sunday and pressed into emergency duty as a catcher, he has given every indication of breaking a season-long batting slump.

Shannon started his first game as a catcher in an eight-year career Thursday and with his new view of life on a baseball field, rapped a seventh inning homer and then singled in the winning run in the 13th inning as the Cardinals edged Milwaukee 5-4.

Shannon, who played himself out of a starting job in the outfield because of a .193 batting average before he turned catcher, now has four hits in eight trips to the plate as a receiver.

He also handled a string of four Cardinals pitchers flawlessly, running into only two problems — a wild pitch and a knuckleball pitcher.

The wild pitch was uncorked in the eighth inning by Hal Woodeshick, enabling Hank Aaron to score the tying run as Shannon chased the ball.

The knuckleball pitcher was Bob Purkey, who came on for the Cardinals in the 12 innings, but threw sliders and sinkers.

The Braves' loss dropped them 2½ games behind the National League leading Los Angeles Dodgers, who were not scheduled. Second-place San Francisco remained 1½ back, losing to Pittsburgh 5-2 after winning the opener of a doubleheader 4-3.

Bill White and Lou Brock joined Shannon as homer hitters for the Cardinals while Joe Torre and Mack Jones connected for the Braves. But the winning run revolved around a catching muff by Sahnnon's colleague in a Milwaukee uniform, Gene Oliver.

Oliver, who also plays first base, was charged with a passed ball that let Ken Boyer reach first base in the 13th after he had struck out. Dal Maxvill sacrificed, White was purposely walked, and one out later, Shannon stroked his game-winning hit.

The Giants extended their winning streak to eight games in the opener when Matty Alou, a replacement for his injured brother Jesus, homered in the eighth inning. Jesus, who tore a hamstring muscle in his right leg chasing Manny Mota's game-tying triple in the seventh, and Willie Mays also homered.

Vern Law snapped the Giants' streak in the nightcap despite surrendering Mays' 32 homer and another solo shot by Len Gabrielson. The Pirates got Law, now 13-9, the runs he needed in a three-run fifth inning uprising capped by Willie Stargell's 24th homer. The two-run blow tagged Gaylord Perry with the loss.

Chris Short, 14-8, allowed only six hits but needed Ed Roebuck's one-out relief help in the ninth before subduing the Astros. Cookie Rojas drove in three runs with a pair of singles for the Phillies while Rich Allen hit his 14th homer.

Collins Looks For Twice As Much Cover

HIRAM, Ohio (AP) — With Paul Warfield sidelined, flanker Gary Collins figures he'll get double coverage when the Browwns open the defense of their National Football League championship.

"With Paul out, I'm sure to get double coverage," Collins said, "but that really won't be new. They did it to me all last season in passing situations."

Warfield suffered a broken collar bone in the Browns victory over the College All Stars in Chicago and is expected to be out for 10 weeks. His replacement at the split end position will be Clifton McNeil. Walter Roberts is also expected to see action.

Collins realizes that the pass catching burden will rest on him. "I'll have to be in the best shape ever," he said. "I'm trying to sharpen my moves and add a few new ones. I have to get open."

The 6 - foot - 4, 215 - pounder grabbed 35 passes for 544 yards last year and scored eight touchdowns.

Wins Yonkers Race

YONKERS, N.Y. (AP) — Noble Victory Thursday night won the $122,236 Yonkers Futurity Trot at Yonkers Raceway, the first leg in trotting's triple. It was his 17th straight victory.

Bukich Hits For 3 TD Passes In Bears Win

By The Associated Press

Rudy Bukich led the Chicago Bears Thursday night in their National Football League exhibition opener, making an impressive debut in his battle with Billy Wade for the No. 1 quarterbacking post by completing 13 of 19 passes for 206 yards and three touchdowns in a 31-30 victory over Washington.

The game, which attracted a sellout crowd of 45,142 into Washington's D.C. Stadium, began a four-day schedule of exhibition play in which all 22 teams in the NFL and rival American League will see action.

Bukich, a 10-year veteran, got the Bears off rolling in the first quarter with a 14-yard scoring strike to Johnny Morris before hitting rookie Dick Gordon on a 75-yard play and Jim Marconi on a five-yard maneuver.

The pass to Gordon gave the Bears a 24-14 lead but the Redskins closed the gap on a 41-yard field goal by John Seedborg and a 44-yard scoring jaunt by Paul Krause with an interception. With a chance to tie, however, Seedborg's extra point attempt was blocked.

The AFL kicks off the busy weekend program tonight with $400,000 quarterback Joe Namath making his first start for the New York Jets against Boston at Allentown, Pa. Namath's $200,000 challenger, John Huarte, also is expected to see action for the first time.

Saturday's schedule shows four NFL games — Baltimore vs. St. Louis at New Orleans, Dallas at Los Angeles, New York at Green Bay and Minnesota vs. Pittsburgh at Atlanta — while the AFL has a two-game program — Houston at Buffalo and Denver vs. Oakland at Salt Lake City.

Yesterday's Stars

BATTING — Don Demeter, Tigers, drove in seven runs — four on a grand slam home run — in Detroit's 11-1 victory over Kansas City. Demeter also had a single and a triple.

PITCHING — Hank Aguirre, Tigers, pitched a four-hitter for his first victory in a month as Detroit ripped Kansas City 11-1.

Police Waste Nothing In Target Shooting

DENVER (AP) — Not a scrap of lead or a cartridge case is wasted when Denver policemen do their target shooting in the basement of the Police Building.

Each officer is required to turn in the empty cases and the smashed lead bullets are recovered in steel containers holding fireproofed sawdust.

Edward J. Kopser, pistol range master, and his assistant, Donald Imes, then melt the lead scraps into half - pound ingots from which fresh bullets are made and inserted into the used cases. The second-hand bullets are used only for target practice.

The grass family is one of the biggest families of plants, with nearly 5,000 different species.

Kralick's Two Wild Tosses Spell Trouble For Indians

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

What Jack Kralick needs most of all is two more strike zones.

The Cleveland left-hander was doing pretty well with the standard one that's located at home plate Thursday night. But when he started aiming at first base and third base, he ran into trouble.

Kralick had limited Los Angeles to six hits and was locked in a 1-1 tie going into the ninth inning. Jim Fregosi opened the inning with a walk.

When Vic Power bunted, Kralick fielded the ball and fired to first base. Only without that strike zone to aim for, Kralick's throw sailed into right field and Fregosi wound up at third and Power at second.

Lou Clinton was purposely walked, loading the bases but Bobby Knoop kayoed the strategy with a two-run single that broke the tie.

Bob Rodgers attempted to sacrifice and again Kralick grabbed the ball. This time he tried for the force at third, but there's no strike zone there either. The ball sailed into left field as Clinton and Knoop dashed home with two more runs.

Angel reliever Bob Lee, who bailed Fred Newman out of a seventh inning jam, made the four runs stand up for his seventh victory of the year. He has lost six.

Elsewhere in the American League, Minnesota whacked New York 8-2, Baltimore downed Boston 5-3 and Detroit battered Kansas City 11-1. In the National League, Philadelphia whipped Houston 7-3, St. Louis shaded Milwaukee 5-4 in 13 innings and San Francisco split a doubleheader with Pittsburgh, winning the first game 4-3 but dropping the second 5-2.

Newman retired the first 14 batters he faced but Larry Brown's single in the sixth broke the spell. The Indians knocked him out in the next inning with singles by Leon Wagner, Rocky Colavito and Max Alvis producing the run.

The Angels clipped Kralick for a third inning run on singles by Paul Schall and Newman and Jose Cardenal's sacrifice fly.

Minnesota tagged four Yankee pitchers for 14 hits and rookie Jim Merritt coasted to his second victory. Richie Rollins and Zoilo Versalles had three hits apiece and Don Mincher hit a two-run homer for the Twins.

Hector Lopez and Clete Boyer homered for New York.

Baltimore came from behind with four runs in the seventh inning to beat Boston. John Orsino's pinch single, good for two runs, was the key blow for the Orioles.

Don Demeter drove in seven runs, four of them on a grand slam homer, and Hank Aguirre pitched a four-hitter for Detroit's victory. Demeter also had a single and a triple as the Tigers pounded three Athletic pitchers for 11 hits. Bill Freehan also homered for the Tigers.

The victory was the first since July 11 for Aguirre, who had failed in five previous attempts to win his 11th game. One of the four hits off him was Rene Lachemann's eighth home run of the season.

Shannon Delivers In New Role As Cardinals' Catcher

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Since Mike Shannon was yanked out of the St. Louis outfield last Sunday and pressed into emergency duty as a catcher, he has given every indication of breaking a season-long batting slump.

Shannon started his first game as a catcher in an eight-year career Thursday and with his new view of life on a baseball field, rapped a seventh inning homer and then singled in the winning run in the 13th inning as the Cardinals edged Milwaukee 5-4.

Shannon, who played himself out of a starting job in the outfield because of a .193 batting average before he turned catcher, now has four hits in eight trips to the plate as a receiver.

He also handled a string of four Cardinals pitchers flawlessly, running into only two problems — a wild pitch and a knuckleball pitcher.

The wild pitch was uncorked in the eighth inning by Hal Woodeshick, enabling Hank Aaron to score the tying run as Shannon chased the ball.

The knuckleball pitcher was Bob Purkey, who came on for the Cardinals in the 12 innings, but threw sliders and sinkers.

The Braves' loss dropped them 2½ games behind the National League leading Los Angeles Dodgers, who were not scheduled. Second-place San Francisco remained 1½ back, losing to Pittsburgh 5-2 after winning the opener of a doubleheader 4-3.

Philadelphia climbed to within 5½ of the top by downing Houston 7-3 in the only other game scheduled.

Bill White and Lou Brock joined Shannon as homer hitters for the Cardinals while Joe Torre and Mack Jones connected for the Braves. But the winning run revolved around a catching muff by Sahnnon's colleague in a Milwaukee uniform, Gene Oliver.

Oliver, who also plays first base, was charged with a passed ball that let Ken Boyer reach first base in the 13th after he had struck out. Dal Maxvill sacrificed. White was purposely walked, and one out later, Shannon stroked his game-winning hit.

The Giants extended their winning streak to eight games in the opener when Matty Alou, a replacement for his injured brother Jesus, homered in the eighth inning. Jesus, who tore a hamstring muscle in his right leg chasing Manny Mota's game-tying triple in the seventh, and Willie Mays also homered.

Vern Law snapped the Giants' streak in the nightcap despite surrendering Mays' 32 homer and another solo shot by Len Gabrielson. The Pirates got Law, now 13-9, the runs he needed in a three-run fifth inning uprising capped by Willie Stargell's 24th homer. The two-run blow tagged Gaylord Perry with the loss.

Chris Short, 14-8, allowed only six hits but needed Ed Roebuck's one-out relief help in the ninth before subduing the Astros. Cookie Rojas drove in three runs with a pair of singles for the Phillies while Rich Allen hit his 14th homer.

Collins Looks For Twice As Much Cover

HIRAM, Ohio (AP) — With Paul Warfield sidelined, flanker Gary Collins figures he'll get double coverage when the Browwns open the defense of their National Football League championship.

"With Paul out, I'm sure to get double coverage," Collins said, "but that really won't be new. They did it to me all last season in passing situations."

Warfield suffered a broken collar bone in the Browns victory over the College All Stars in Chicago and is expected to be out for 10 weeks. His replacement at the split end position will be Clifton McNeil. Walter Roberts is also expected to see action.

Collins realizes that the pass catching burden will rest on him. "I'll have to be in the best shape ever," he said. "I'm trying to sharpen my moves and add a few new ones. I have to get open."

The 6-foot-4, 215-pounder grabbed 35 passes for 544 yards last year and scored eight touchdowns.

Wins Yonkers Race

YONKERS, N.Y. (AP) — Noble Victory Thursday night won the $122,236 Yonkers Futurity Trot at Yonkers Raceway, the first leg in trotting's triple. It was his 17th straight victory.

Bukich Hits For 3 TD Passes In Bears Win

By The Associated Press

Rudy Bukich led the Chicago Bears Thursday night in their National Football League exhibition opener, making an impressive debut in his battle with Billy Wade for the No. 1 quarterbacking post by completing 13 of 19 passes for 206 yards and three touchdowns in a 31-30 victory over Washington.

The game, which attracted a sellout crowd of 45,142 into Washington's D.C. Stadium, began a four-day schedule of exhibition play in which all 22 teams in the NFL and rival American League will see action.

Bukich, a 10-year veteran, got the Bears off rolling in the first quarter with a 14-yard scoring strike to Johnny Morris before hitting rookie Dick Gordon on a 75-yard play and Jim Marconi on a five-yard maneuver.

The pass to Gordon gave the Bears a 24-14 lead but the Redskins closed the gap on a 41-yard field goal by John Seedborg and a 44-yard scoring jaunt by Paul Krause with an interception. With a chance to tie, however, Seedborg's extra point attempt was blocked.

The AFL kicks off the busy weekend program tonight with $400,000 quarterback Joe Namath making his first start for the New York Jets against Boston at Allentown, Pa. Namath's $200,000 challenger, John Huarte, also is expected to see action for the first time.

Saturday's schedule shows four NFL games — Baltimore vs. St. Louis at New Orleans, Dallas at Los Angeles, New York at Green Bay and Minnesota vs. Pittsburgh at Atlanta — while the AFL has a two-game program — Houston at Buffalo and Denver vs. Oakland at Salt Lake City.

Yesterday's Stars

BATTING — Don Demeter, Tigers, drove in seven runs — four on a grand slam home run — in Detroit's 11-1 victory over Kansas City. Demeter also had a single and a triple.

PITCHING — Hank Aguirre, Tigers, pitched a four-hitter for his first victory in a month as Detroit ripped Kansas City 11-1.

Police Waste Nothing In Target Shooting

DENVER (AP) — Not a scrap of lead or a cartridge case is wasted when Denver policemen do their target shooting in the basement of the Police Building.

Each officer is required to turn in the empty cases and the smashed lead bullets are recovered in steel containers holding fireproofed sawdust.

Edward J. Kopser, pistol range master, and his assistant, Donald Imes, then melt the lead scraps into half-pound ingots from which fresh bullets are made and inserted into the used cases. The second-hand bullets are used only for target practice.

The grass family is one of the biggest families of plants, with nearly 5,000 different species.

After Woman's Killed In Mishap

Rock-Hurling Mob Riots At Chicago Fire Station

CHICAGO (AP) — A jeering, rock-throwing crowd of several hundred persons staged a noisy demonstration in front of a fire station in a West Side Negro neighborhood Thursday night and early today.

The crowd gathered shortly after an unidentified Negro woman who was standing on a street corner was killed in an accident involving a fire truck.

More than 100 policemen were sent into the area of Wilcox St. and Pulaski Road. Rocks and bottles were hurled at passing cars and at the front of the fire station.

Scores of youths were in the crowd and many had thrown themselves in front of cars. Police, after a couple of hours, managed to disperse most of the crowd and arrested 16 persons on charges of disorderly conduct.

One policeman suffered minor injuries when he was hit by a flying object. He was treated at a hospital and released. A motorist suffered facial cuts after a rock was hurled through a window of his car.

Police blocked off Pulaski Road for three blocks after windows in several cars were broken by rocks and bottles thrown from the crowd. One of the cars was a police wagon and another was owned by a detective.

The trouble started shortly after the woman was killed. Frank Thielmann, first deputy fire marshal, said a hook and ladder truck left the station in response to what proved to be a false alarm. He said the tillerman's seat on the rear of the truck was empty.

He said the rear of the truck, normally steered by a tillerman, began to weave, jumped the curb at the intersection and crashed into a traffic sign. The sign struck the woman, killing her. The truck continued out of control for a short distance and stopped after hitting a food truck.

Youth With Artificial Limbs Awaits Car Driving Lessons

But Johnny may find it more difficult than most. He has artificial arms and legs.

"Sure, I think I can do it," said Johnny, who was the poster boy for the 1960 Easter Seal campaign. "But I may be a little slow at first.

"I think I'll probably be a little nervous, too. But I'm not worried. I know it's going to be necessary at some time in my life."

Under Kentucky law, Johnny can get a learner's permit when he becomes 16 in October.

Johnny's last-minute decision to attend a Fourth of July fireworks show whetted his ambition to drive. He won a 1958 model car at the show.

Johnny was born without limbs below the elbows and knees. After he got his artificial equipment, his father made him use it.

"Dad kept pushing me to do things when I was real young. If he had not made me, I wouldn't be doing so many things now. I thought it was a little hard at the time, but not now," says Johnny.

Johnny's driving teacher will be a former state trooper who has offered his services free and has experience in teaching handicapped persons to drive.

Young Kemp, who aspires to be a pathologist, plays ball well enough for neighborhood games. He is manager of the basketball, swimming and track teams at Good Shepherd High School.

Dominican's Rebel Sector Seen Restless

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP) — Restlessness appears to be mounting in the rebel sector of Santo Domingo as negotiations to end the crisis drag on with no agreement in sight.

Two members of the Organization of American States peace committee — Ellsworth Bunker of the United States and Ramon de Clarimont of El Salvador — were booed when they arrived at the rebel headquarters Thursday to meet with Col. Francisco Caamano Deno, the insurgent chief.

The day before shouting demonstrators prevented the OAS committee from leaving the rebel quarter until Caamano intervened.

Shortly after Bunker and De Clairmont left Caamano Thursday, three shots rang out in front of rebel headquarters. Bystanders said rebel soldiers were disarming a guard who was drunk and the guard's gun went off.

A rebel soldier was killed Wednesday night, setting off reports that a quarrel had broken out in the rebel camp. Col. Manuel Ramon Montes Arache, chief of the rebel armed forces, said the soldier was killed while trying to arrest a chicken thief.

The incidents are considered signs of increasing unrest in the rebel sector, where extreme leftwingers are known to oppose the course negotiations with the OAS peace committee have taken.

Charles F. Jordan, IBOP secretary-treasurer, represents the union on the negotiating committee along with a four-man delegation from Local 116.

Israeli Accuse Syria In Gun Deaths Of 5

By The Associated Press

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP) — An Israeli army spokesman claimed Syrian guns killed three Arab girls, an Arab woman and an Israeli soldier during a three-hour tank and artillery duel across the Syrian-Israeli border Thursday.

A spokesman in Damascus countered with claims that Syria inflicted "heavy losses" on Israeli positions and set a tank on fire. He said four Syrian soldiers and two civilians were wounded.

Each side accused the other of starting the firing, which did not stop until U.N. truce supervisors issued three cease-fire appeals.

The idea of "guided missiles" was employed by the Japanese near the end of World War II. These were the "kamikaze," or suicide planes, which were essentially guided missiles using expendable human pilots instead of mechanical directional devices.

After Woman's Killed In Mishap

Rock-Hurling Mob Riots At Chicago Fire Station

CHICAGO (AP) — A jeering, rock-throwing crowd of several hundred persons staged a noisy demonstration in front of a fire station in a West Side Negro neighborhood Thursday night and early today.

The crowd gathered shortly after an unidentified Negro woman who was standing on a street corner was killed in an accident involving a fire truck.

More than 100 policemen were sent into the area of Wilcox St. and Pulaski Road. Rocks and bottles were hurled at passing cars and at the front of the fire station.

Scores of youths were in the crowd and many had thrown themselves in front of cars. Police, after a couple of hours, managed to disperse most of the crowd and arrested 16 persons on charges of disorderly conduct.

One policeman suffered minor injuries when he was hit by a flying object. He was treated at a hospital and released. A motorist suffered facial cuts after a rock was hurled through a window of his car.

Police blocked off Pulaski Road for three blocks after windows in several cars were broken by rocks and bottles thrown from the crowd. One of the cars was a police wagon and another was owned by a detective.

The trouble started shortly after the woman was killed. Frank Thielmann, first deputy fire marshal, said a hook and ladder truck left the station in response to what proved to be a false alarm. He said the tillerman's seat on the rear of the truck was empty.

He said the rear of the truck, normally steered by a tillerman, began to weave, jumped the curb at the intersection and crashed into a traffic sign. The sign struck the woman, killing her. The truck continued out of control for a short distance and stopped after hitting a food truck.

Youth With Artificial Limbs Awaits Car Driving Lessons

But Johnny may find it more difficult than most. He has artificial arms and legs.

"Sure, I think I can do it," said Johnny, who was the poster boy for the 1960 Easter Seal campaign. "But I may be a little slow at first.

"I think I'll probably be a little nervous, too. But I'm not worried. I know it's going to be necessary at some time in my life."

Under Kentucky law, Johnny can get a learner's permit when he becomes 16 in October.

Johnny's last-minute decision to attend a Fourth of July fireworks show whetted his ambition to drive. He won a 1958 model car at the show.

The car has all the necessary extras — power brakes, power steering, automatic transmission, and a knob on the steering wheel to grip with his artificial limb.

Johnny was born without limbs below the elbows and knees. After he got his artificial equipment, his father made him use it.

"Dad kept pushing me to do things when I was real young. If he had not made me, I wouldn't be doing so many things now. I thought it was a little hard at the time, but not now," says Johnny.

Johnny's driving teacher will be a former state trooper who has offered his services free and has experience in teaching handicapped persons to drive.

Young Kemp, who aspires to be a pathologist, plays ball well enough for neighborhood games. He is manager of the basketball, swimming and track teams at Good Shepherd High School.

Lisbon Group Set For Fete; Other Social Events Held

A delegation from the Elsie Dodd Missionary Society of the Lisbon Trinity Friends Church will be among those attending the "pink banquet" on Aug. 23 at Malone College in Canton.

Plans for the event were made during this week's meeting at the home of Mrs. Ruth Huff of Trinity Church Rd.

Mrs. Barbara Headland, president, conducted the business session.

"Salvation is for All Believers" was the devotional theme led by Mrs. Joan Jackson. The meeting closed with prayer by Mrs. Headland.

Assisting Mrs. Huff with refreshments were her daughter Francis and Mrs. Louise Ingledue.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Ingeldue of the Lisbon - Millport Rd.

Bridge Club Meets

The Wednesday Night Bridge Club was entertained at the home of Mrs. A. E. Christopher of Vine St.

High scores were received by Mrs. John Chillik and Mrs. Victor Williams.

Mrs. Ross Carnes of N. Beaver St. will be hostess on Aug. 24.

Family Reunion Held

Twenty - eight descendants of Mrs. Elizabeth Snow attended a family reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Y. Carlisle of Pleasant Heights Sunday.

Mrs. Stella Mackall of East Liverpool, 90, received special recognition as the oldest person present; Carrie Sue Armstrong, 3 months, the youngest, and Mrs. Vallie Robinson and family of Los Angeles for having traveled the farthest distance. Others present were from Akron, Chester, East Liverpool and Lisbon.

The next reunion will be Aug. 7, 1966, at the Carlisle home.

Surprise Party Held

Mrs. Guy Hurd of Chesnut Ave. was surprised with a birthday anniversary party Wednesday night at her home.

She received gifts and cards. Refreshments were served to 24 at a buffet table decorated in a pink, yellow and white theme and centered with a birthday cake.

Guests were from San Luis Obispo, Calif., Kensington, Salineville and East Liverpool.

Lisbon Personals

Clifford Todd of Winter Park, Fla., has concluded a visit with his father, John Todd, and his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Peterson of the Canton Rd.

Miss Mary Peterson of Canton, a teacher in the Canton school system, also visited her parents the last 10 days.

Dominican's Rebel Sector Seen Restless

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP) — Restlessness appears to be mounting in the rebel sector of Santo Domingo as negotiations to end the crisis drag on with no agreement in sight.

Two members of the Organization of American States peace committee — Ellsworth Bunker of the United States and Ramon de Clarimont of El Salvador — were booed when they arrived at the rebel headquarters Thursday to meet with Col. Francisco Caamano Deno, the insurgent chief.

The day before shouting demonstrators prevented the OAS committee from leaving the rebel quarter until Caamano intervened.

Shortly after Bunker and De Clairmont left Caamano Thursday, three shots rang out in front of rebel headquarters. Bystanders said rebel soldiers were disarming a guard who was drunk and the guard's gun went off.

A rebel soldier was killed Wednesday night, setting off reports that a quarrel had broken out in the rebel camp. Col. Manuel Ramon Montes Arache, chief of the rebel armed forces, said the soldier was killed while trying to arrest a chicken thief.

The incidents are considered signs of increasing unrest in the rebel sector, where extreme leftwingers are known to oppose the course negotiations with the OAS peace committee have taken.

IBOP, Illinois Plant To Begin Negotiations

Negotiations on a new contract with the Lincoln China Co., Inc., of Lincoln, Ill., will begin Sept. 14, officials of the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters said today.

Under terms of a previous agreement, employes of the firm, the former Stetson China Co., also receive the benefits of the economic package granted by the United States Potters Association, which went into effect the first full pay after Aug. 1.

Charles F. Jordan, IBOP secretary-treasurer, represents the union on the negotiating committee along with a four-man delegation from Local 116.

6 Hurt In Area Mishaps Treated At City Hospital

Mrs. Thelma Ward of East Liverpool suffered a puncture wound of the lower right leg when bitten by a dog along the Smiths Ferry - Calcutta Rd.

Israeli Accuse Syria In Gun Deaths Of 5

By The Associated Press

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP) — An Israeli army spokesman claimed Syrian guns killed three Arab girls, an Arab woman and an Israeli soldier during a three-hour tank and artillery duel across the Syrian-Israeli border Thursday.

A spokesman in Damascus countered with claims that Syria inflicted "heavy losses" on Israeli positions and set a tank on fire. He said four Syrian soldiers and two civilians were wounded.

Each side accused the other of starting the firing, which did not stop until U.N. truce supervisors issued three cease-fire appeals.

The idea of "guided missiles" was employed by the Japanese near the end of World War II. These were the "kamikaze," or suicide planes, which were essentially guided missiles using expendable human pilots instead of mechanical directional devices.

Ohio National Guard Heads For Training

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Many of Ohio's highways will be crawling with military vehicles tonight and Saturday as the 37th Infantry Division—9,500 strong—heads for two weeks of summer field training.

As for the past five years, the Ohio National Guard division will train at Camp Grayling, Mich., 250 miles north of Toledo, and will travel entirely in military convoy.

Movements of the division's 97 units from 54 Ohio cities will be over three main routes and at various times to keep the slow-moving convoys—35 to 40 miles an hour average speed—from interferring with traffic as much as possible.

The division moves out just two days after Congress gave it a reprieve, assuring its existence at least for another year. The 37th was slated for downgrading to a brigade—about one-third division size—under Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara's plan to merge the Guard and the Army Reserve. The reorganization plan was killed, at least for this year, by a House subcommittee Wednesday.

Brig. Gen. Wilbur H. Fricke of Waynesville, Warren County, took command June 1 following the retirement of Maj. Gen. Loren G. Windom.

Ohio National Guard Heads For Training

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Many of Ohio's highways will be crawling with military vehicles tonight and Saturday as the 37th Infantry Division—9,500 strong—heads for two weeks of summer field training.

As for the past five years, the Ohio National Guard division will train at Camp Grayling, Mich., 250 miles north of Toledo, and will travel entirely in military convoy.

Movements of the division's 97 units from 54 Ohio cities will be over three main routes and at various times to keep the slow-moving convoys—35 to 40 miles an hour average speed—from interferring with traffic as much as possible.

The division moves out just two days after Congress gave it a reprieve, assuring its existence at least for another year. The 37th was slated for downgrading to a brigade—about one-third division size—under Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara's plan to merge the Guard and the Army Reserve. The reorganization plan was killed, at least for this year, by a House subcommittee Wednesday.

Brig. Gen. Wilbur H. Fricke of Waynesville, Warren County, took command June 1 following the retirement of Maj. Gen. Loren G. Windom.

"You are lucky, in three days there is going to be a bed available."

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q.—When I have inadvertently ironed nylon or other synthetic fabric at too high a temperature, and the heat has melted some of the fabric onto my iron, what can I do?

A.—While the iron is at its highest setting, rub over its sole plate with a paste of glycerin and scouring powder, then wipe off with a soft damp cloth—and the fabric deposits should be gone.

Q.—Do you have a tip for making the ironing of pleats easier?

A.—Try using paper clips to hold each pleat in place. These can be slipped on and off in jig time, and leave no marks.

Q.—When a short crack appears on one of my window or door panes, how can I prevent it from eventually continuing on across the glass?

A.—By scoring short arcs on both sides of the glass near the end of the crack. Use a glass cutter to make these arcs, and scribe them carefully, making them not more than about ½ inch in length.

Q.—How can I insure a wood or machine screw's remaining tightly in place?

A.—If you'll drop a bit of shellac on the threads of the screw before turning it in, the shellac will act as a cement for holding the screw firmly in place.

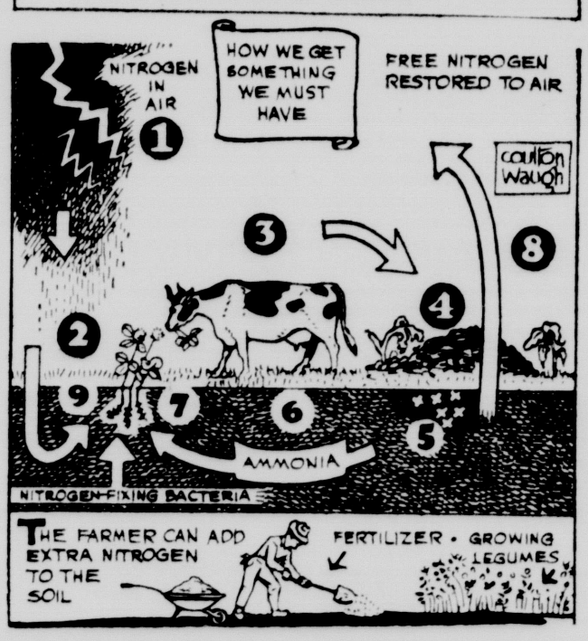
Q.—How can I remove grease spots from wallpaper?

A.—Cover these spots with a paste made of cornstarch and water, let dry, then brush off—and in most cases the stain will brush off, too.

Q.—How can I clean ceramic tile?

A.—Using a mixture of two parts liquid detergent with three parts of household vinegar, take an old toothbrush and scrub the tile with this mixture, especially the putty strips which join the blocks of tile.

Junior Editors Quiz on NITROGEN



QUESTION: What are "nitrogen-fixing" bacteria?

ANSWER: Nitrogen is the chief gas in the air. It is a substance necessary to life because it helps make up the protoplasm which is the living material inside the cells of our bodies. We must take in nitrogen all the time to renew these cells and build more. We breathe in nitrogen, but do not absorb it that way, so we must get it by eating plants, or animals which have eaten plants. The plants, in turn, get nitrogen from the soil, and soil gets it in a number of ways. One of these is through the nitrogen-fixing bacteria. Bacteria are extremely minute living organisms usually classified as plants. Some are harmful; many are very useful, even necessary to our lives. The nitrogen-fixing group of bacteria live on the roots of a family of plants called legumes, such as peas, beans and clover. These bacteria have the ability to take nitrogen out of the air which works down through the soil. After using this for their own living, they die and leave the nitrogen, which is called "fixing" it. Certain crops, such as corn, take a great deal of nitrogen out of the soil. The farmers often raise legume crops to improve the soil. Legumes are frequently plowed under for this reason.

FOR YOU TO DO: Check the numbers in the picture to see how nitrogen is continually being passed around—from air and rain to soil, to plants and animals, back to the soil again. This rotation is called nitrogen cycle.

White Doctors Seek To Join

'Integration In Reverse' Indicated By NMA Head

CINCINNATI (AP)—The National Medical Association's new president believes the time has come for the predominantly Negro doctors' association to start practicing what it calls "reverse integration."

"I believe that any segregated group, white or black, is doomed to the same gradual decadence as we go forward to an integrated society and the great society," Dr. Leonidas H. Berry said in an interview Thursday.

Dr. Berry, of Chicago, took over as president at the group's annual convention here this week.

Dr. Berry said a few local societies of the 70-year-old organization have always had white members, but that many white physicians are now asking about joining the association.

"There are two reasons for this," Dr. Berry said. "They are predominantly people who recognize injustice when they see it, and want to do something about it in the medical field.

While maintaining that the "American Medical Association does not speak for all the doctors," Dr. Berry denied that the NMA is in any way trying to become a rival to the AMA.

The two organizations have taken different stands on public issues. For instance, the AMA opposed President Johnson's medicare program while the NMA came out strongly in its favor.

The NMA was formed in 1895 to fight racial discrimination in the medical profession and Dr. Berry said this goal has not changed.

"Things are a little better now," he said.

"We're at the stage where you have this business of one man getting a courtesy appointment to the staff of a 700-bed hospital. He's on the bottom rung and he'll likely stay there for 25 years the way it is.

"Our goal is to have these men admitted to the team—to have them get into the mainstream and be able to go as far as their ability will carry them. I may not live to see this, but I would like to see a situation where a Negro intern may seriously aspire to some day become the chief of surgery."

Pennsylvania's Aspirant Named In Mrs. America

CHICAGO (AP) — Mrs. John Saxion of Apollo, Pa., a 41-year-old mother of three girls, has been selected to represent Pennsylvania in the 1965 Mrs. America contest.

Mrs. Saxion will vie for the national title against other state winners at San Diego, Calif., Aug. 20-29.

Pennsylvania's entry in the 27th annual Mrs. America competition is secretary - treasurer of the Apollo Junior Women's Club, a director of the local cancer drive, secretary of the Volunteer Cerebral Palsy Auxiliary, PTA president and the secretary of the board of school directors. Her first name is Maxine.

Her hobbies are interior decorating and charcoal sketching. She is the wife of an inspector for the Allegheny Ludlum Steel Corp.

Runnersup for the Pennsylvania title were Mrs. James McGregor of Pittsburgh and Mrs. Walter Adelmann of Stroudsburg.

White Pastor Hints Sit-In At Project

CINCINNATI (AP)—A white minister has indicated the Congress of Racial Equality may stage a sit-in during construction of Cincinnati's new convention hall.

Holt said this in a speech Thursday night following a protest march through downtown Cincinnati. Police estimated 200 whites and Negroes participated in the march, sponsored by CORE, from City Hall to the convention hall site.

There were no incidents, police reported.

Leaders of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, meanwhile, said they hoped to be conferring today with the NAACP National Labor Secretary Herbert Hill on the local situation. Hill was slated to come to Cincinnati from New York.

The NAACP and CORE have been staging demonstrations and sit-ins here since July 26, protesting the alleged refusal of the building trades unions to hire Negro construction workers. Thirty-seven demonstrators have been arrested thus far.

NAACP leaders did not participate in Thursday night's march as previously planned. However, leaders of both groups said there is no rift between them.
